Chief boosts Chev's
YORK REGION — Police Chief Bruce Crawford isn't on the payroll of General Motors but he's a big booster of their products, particularly Chevrolets. In recommending the purchase of twenty Chev cruisers, Chief Crawford said that while the bid submitted by H.A. McLean, Chevrolet-Oldsobile of Aurora, wasn't the lowest, the cars (Chevrolets) would be more economical to operate and maintain. The McLean Company price was the second lowest of five tenders received. On the chief's advice, the Police Commission approved a figure of $132,810.00, with delivery in January, 1981.

Fair success
STOUFFVILLE — St. Mark's Parish Fall Fair proved a tremendous success. It promoted friendship and co-operation and resulted in a substantial donation to the church building fund. The event was co-chaired by Maureen Irwin and Casey Van Maris. It involved more than 135 people, working in booths and on committees. The Parish wishes to thank The Tribune and the people of Whitchurch-Stouffville for their generous support. Youth Club St. Mark's Youth Club recently elected the following young people to its executive: President - Barbara Van Maris; Vice-President - Eric Tobog; Treasurer - Lisa Heenan; Secretary - Jane Tosney; Promotion - Tim Humphries; Sports - Jackie Hulshof; Social - Lynda Butler; Fund-Raising - Marlene Cooney; Goodwill - Anna Van Maris. Special Mass Father Adams said a special Mass on Thanksgiving Day and blessed the hampers of food the parishioners donated to the Hostel of the Good Shepherd in downtown Toronto. Rev. Thomas Hunt of Renfrew, uncle of Michael Hunt, was a recent visitor and celebrated Mass.
