"No deal" candidate

Dear Mr. Thomas:
Since as of this date (Nov. 7), the election results are not known and the results in Ward 4 are as yet undecided, I feel it necessary to write and clarify a few points in Mr. Kamps' Letter to the Editor, Nov. 6.

Mr. Kamps stated that a group known as POWR (Preserve Our Water Resources), was upset that he attended my open meeting, Oct. 28 and that I had been sponsored by this organization.

Neither of these statements is true. I had not been endorsed by or received support from POWR. And further, the only persons visibly upset was Mr. Kamps and his supporter.

I did appreciate the exchange we had as it clearly showed we were divided on major issues. But to link a group of hard-working environmentalists to my electioneering was unfair.

I certainly support POWR's efforts in protecting and informing the public. However, no deal had been struck to oppose Mr. Kamps' candidacy.

Thankyou for the opportunity to set the record straight.

Sincerely,
Wayne Andrews,
Church Street,
Stouffville.

Late Patricia Renwick
Service was held from Melville United Church, Wednesday at 2 p.m. for Mrs. Charles Renwick, the former Patricia Emslie, following her passing, Nov. 9. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Ronald and Robert; three brothers, Fred, Percy and Donald; and one sister, Isobel Dart. Interment was at Melville Cemetery.

Draw Winners
Lucky draw winners at the Legion Ladies Auxiliary Bazaar, Saturday were - Mrs. N. Barnett of Ajax (tablecloth); Mrs. N. Scott, Etobicoke (quilt); and Margaret Baker, R.R. 2, Stouffville (shawl). A ceramic Christmas tree, offered by the Friendship Club was won by Mrs. Murray Stewart, R.R. 3, Stouffville.
