Down Cobourg

STOUFFVILLE — An early goal by Howie Underwood, on a nice play by Dave McKenzie and Keith Wideman set the pace for Stouffville's Juveniles in their game against Cobourg on Sunday evening, for a comfortable 4-2 win. Cobourg tied the score before Larry Fockler, from Wideman and Claud Maillet, put the Stouffville team ahead 2-1 at the end of the second period.

The Juveniles came out of the game well, picking up only six minutes in penalties to Cobourg's 24.

Dave Mahaffey, a 'Midget 'A' player, was drafted temporarily and turned in a fine performance on defence.

Home games are on Wednesday evenings at 9:00 p.m. and the team would like some spectator support. With players of the calibre of Wideman, McKenzie and Underwood you can be assured of watching good hockey.

A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU!

- To many many workers!
- For all of you that voted!
- Our congratulations to you Eldred!

SPORTS

Acton 'stars'

Stouffville's hockey eyes are on Montreal these days as local favorite, Keith Acton continues his great play with the Canadiens.

On Tuesday night, Keith scored another goal as the Montrealers romped over Colorado, 8-2. Prior to that game, he had recorded 2 goals and 4 assists for six points.

In Saturday's contest against Los Angeles, he was selected one of the game's three stars.

Montreal comes to Toronto, Nov. 19. Several in town have tickets. Those who don't, will be 'glued' to their television screens.

One of the hardest working members of the team, Greg Ferguson, No. 8, is "Clipper of the week". Now in his second year, this left-winger is noted for his aggressive play in front of the net.

Last second tie

The Stouffville Atom Representative Team registered a convincing home ice win against Pickering Village on November 5, with a score of 7 to 3. Goals were scored by: Craig Stronach 1, Brad May 1, Guy Murriff 2, Kent Smythe 1, Mike Ferguson 1 and Philip Wesolowski 1.

Assists were credited to: Kent Smythe, Craig Mucci, Philip Wesolowski & Sean Lewis, Sean Lewis & Derek Hamilton, Darron Baston, Mike Ferguson & Brad Tiley, Guy Murriff & Aaron McWilliams.

On November 8, the team held the Bowmanville Bulls, at Bowmanville, to a 2 to 2 tie in a most exciting game. Darron Baston scored the first goal in the first period assisted by Brad May and Craig Mucci. Bowmanville equalized in the second period. The Bulls went ahead with a third period goal with only 5.43 left to play. Despite a subsequent power play Stouffville failed to score until with 16 seconds left, and playing with an empty net, Darron Baston scored again assisted by Craig Mucci and Brad Tiley.

The next league games are at home against Cobourg on Wednesday Nov. 12, and at Port Hope on November 15.

Orloles Leslie Eakins on Cindy Dixon's assist saved them from a shutout.

Don't forget this Sunday when the Allstar girls meet CFCGM Bullshooters at the Stouffville arena. Face-off is at 5:30 p.m. and admission is just 99 cents.

Allstar win

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville's senior girls' hockey Allstar team, sponsored by A and M Records, downed the Willowdale Orioles 3-1 in a fast moving game last weekend.

Allstar goals came from Cheryl Singleton with a pair and Jackie Armet added a single. Assists went to Mary Albright, Marcia Clapp and Heather Ross. Diane Houston tended net and strong performances came from Kathy Gibb, Sandy Hardy and Elaine Walker.

Some of the stars expected for Sunday's game include: Johnny Bourque, "Wild" Bill Kelly, one of CFCGM's announcers, Joe Howe, Al Briscoe, Freddy "Freight-train" White of the Carlton Showband and many others.

Face-off is at 5:30 p.m. at Stouffville arena. Price of admission is just 99 cents. Come and have some fun. It will be a riot.

Bullshooters here

STOUFFVILLE — The CFCGM Bullshooters come to town on Sunday afternoon for their game against Stouffville's girls' Allstar hockey team.

The Bullshooters were created for the sole purpose of raising money for charity; the charity in this case being the Girl's Hockey League.

Anyone who has watched this team play has been impressed with their spirit of fun and sportsmanship.

Now entering their sixth season, the "Bullshooters" have helped to raise in excess of $75,000 for charity and minor hockey associations.
