

MARY GRIFFITHS

Girl manages a boys' team

STOUFFVILLE — Volleyball has taken on a "new look" at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School this year.

The manager of the all-boy St. Spartans is an all-girl named Mary Griffiths; and a mighty pretty one too.

Getting her foot in the door, so to speak, wasn't difficult for Mary. For, in her own right, she's a mighty fine athlete, doing particularly well in track and field. However, she wanted to learn more about volleyball, so, one day, approached Phys. Ed. instructor Jim Rehill about the job. Without as much as raising an eyebrow, he gave Mary the "green light". Everything's gone well. Believe it or not, but Mary even joins in practice sessions with the club.

When the team hits the road, Mary goes along. She boosts their spirits when things aren't going too well and serves as a "gofer", keeping fresh water on the bench and helping out with equipment.

However, Mary's the first to admit there are limitations. The dressing room's definitely out of bounds. That's her choice, she told The Tribune. The boys themselves, were't questioned on the subject.

Mary isn't the only female volleyball manager in the secondary school circuit, but possibly the only one in York County.

Mr. Rehill, she admits, is her "hero". She listens intently to his every word. "The experience," she says, "should prove a tremendous benefit to me later this year."

The Spartans, current Georgian Bay Champions, have perfected skills, unmatched in the area. They also have something "extra" that, who knows, may soon become the rule rather than the exception.

Fund-raising project S.O.S. booklets

STOUFFVILLE — The students of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School will be launching a fund-raising drive this weekend that is both different and interesting. Instead of chocolate bars, oranges and grapefruit, they'll be selling "S.O.S. Booklets". These booklets contain discount coupons offering fantastic savings from a variety of major businesses. These savings will appeal to every member of the family and can amount to approximately $120 in value.

The coupons are good for one year. For a return of $120 on a $9.95 investment, patrons can't go wrong. There is more.

While the customer benefits, so does the school, S.D.S.S. will be able to raise badly needed funds and the proceeds are used to subsidize Canadian Amateur Athletics including programs for the handicapped.

What does S.O.S. stand for? It can mean "Support Ontario Sports" and "Support Our Students". Parents are urged to boost this campaign through purchasing coupon booklets and maybe even selling a few to friends.

Anyone who may be missed as the students make their rounds, can place an order by calling the school at 640-1433. It's an ideal way to cut Christmas costs.

House damaged

MUSS LAKE — A 30 year old Musselman's Lake man has been charged with mischief to private property and threatening after a Stouffville area woman complained that a window and door were smashed at her home.

Wayne Rodgers of Cedarvale Boulevard was arrested Oct. 23 by York Regional Police. At that time, he was further charged with possession of an offensive weapon after a knife was found on his person.

Sarah Lunau

Young at 93

By JIM THOMAS
STOUFFVILLE — Sarah Lunau, a resident at Parkview Home, lives with wonderful memories.

She recalls the years spent on their farm north-east of Mount Albert in the Township of Scott. She remembers their little general store, located in the village of Mount Albert and the enjoyable times they knew at Jackson's Point.

She remembers her many friends and her family. And they remember her.

Lovely cards are prominent in her room. The occasion was her 93rd birthday, Nov. 11.

Born in East York, the daughter of Robert and Sarah Tooley, she moved with her parents to Scott Township at the age of only six. Farming was her life and Sarah could turn her hand to just about everything, even milking the cows.

Although reluctant to leave, her husband felt it was time to try something different. That's when they acquired the store in Mount Albert. "We kept a little bit of everything so we'd be sure to sell something," she remembers Mr. Lunau saying. He passed away sixteen years ago.

Sarah enjoys indoor bowling at Parkview. She also watches television and reads a lot.

The mother of four, she has two daughters living right in Stouffville — Joy Byer and Mary Lintner. Another daughter, Pauline Irving resides at Peterborough. A son Robert lives in Toronto. She has twenty grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren and several great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Lunau's birthday wasn't allowed to slip by unnoticed. She enjoyed dinner with Walter and Mildred Byer, Hwy. 48, north of Markham and in the evening was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mary on Glad Park Avenue, Stouffville.

Sarah is a prime example of the old saying, "hard work never hurt anyone". As the daughter and wife of farmers, she knows all about that. She's also known that since her teen years, she's had a heart condition but she's never let it get her down. She loves to laugh and talk over old times. She's a lady.

Jogging

A hazard

YORK REGION — Jogging has become a popular form of exercising but for one man, it proved hazardous.

Silvio Desimoni told Provincial Judge Russell G. Pearce in Newmarket Court that he's often had dogs snap at his heels and even people spit at him as he jogs along, but recently, when someone hurled an umbrella at him, he called the police.

A 17 year old youth was later charged with assault causing bodily harm.

According to evidence, the boy threw the umbrella at Desimoni as he ran along the shoulder of the road. The end struck him on the forehead and the injury required medical attention.

The lad said he only wanted to scare the runner, not hurt him. He said it "slipped" because his hands were oily.

Judge Pearce said that had the umbrella hit the man in the eye, the result could have been much more serious. He registered a conviction, gave him a suspended sentence and placed him on probation for one year.

Venturers - Scouts

Raise funds

BALLANTRAE — Next July, a group of Ballantrae Venturers and Scouts will leave by air for Calgary, Alberta to attend the 1981 Jamboree.

The cost is estimated at $150 per boy.

In an effort to subsidize this expense, several fund-raising events are planned in the Ballantrae area including a Paper Drive, Saturday (Nov. 22) and a New Year's Dance, Dec. 31 at the Community Centre. Tickets are now on sale at $30 a couple including a buffet. For additional information the numbers to call are 640-3704 and 473-5846.

Royal champion

WHITCHURCH — Ron King of King Charolais Farm, Conc. 5, Whitchurch-Stouffville, won both the Junior and the Junior Reserve Championships in the Charolais Class at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. Competition was held Saturday.

The entry placed first out of fourteen. The owner received an engraved silver tray.
