

Appreciation

Dear sir: I wish to express my thanks to the Home Support Services organization in Stouffville, particularly the three members of the Markham Mennoite Youth Group who helped with my home and garden chores, Saturday, Nov. 1. It was a pleasure to have three cheerful, willing and efficient young men assist with this work that is becoming more difficult for me each year.

It makes one optimistic for the future knowing our community has such organizations and young people in our midst.

Sincerely,
 John Brubacher,
 Stouffville.

Service honored

Ron Mercer, former vice-principal at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, was recently honored at the fall conference of the Central Region, Ontario Secondary School Headmasters' Association. He was presented with an engraved plaque, recognizing 34 years of dedicated service within the secondary school system. The presentation was made at a dinner held at the Holiday Inn near Toronto International Airport. Mr. Mercer along with former S.D.S.S. principal Mervyn Witherow, were platform guests at the High School's Commencement Exercises, Friday evening.

Offers reward

A Stouffville senior citizen lost her cane in town back on Nov. 3. It is light-weight, brown in color, with a straight handle and wide silver band. It's a keepsake through several family generations. A reward has been offered for its return. The number to call is 640-3763.

Commerce Day

To promote shopping in Stouffville, Monday, Dec. 1 has been declared Commerce Day at John Lord's Books, 36 Main Street East from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. On this particular occasion the store will be open only to Chamber members and their staffs.

Turkey Shoot

School Picture

Wes Brillinger, Parkview Apartments, Stouffville, has in his possession an old picture taken at Clayton Public School on the 5th Centennial of Markham. He'd very much like to identify the students in the photo. The date is about 1894. Three pupils in the picture are - Mrs. John Brillinger, Arthur Hare and William Bruce. Mr. Brillinger can be contacted at 640-4591.

Pleasant Reminder

The first recipient of the General Proficiency Award in Academic, Sports and Attendance at Summitview School was Trudy Cadieux. The year was 1962. Trudy is now a member of the teaching staff there.

Home Support

A public meeting of the Whitechurch-Stouffville Home Support Services for Senior Citizens will be held on Monday, Nov. 24 at 7:30 p.m., in the Silver Jubilee Club, Main and Market Streets. Recipients of this service as well as would-be volunteers are invited to attend. Persons willing to serve as board members are also welcome.

Holiday Bazaar

St. Patrick's Church, Markham, is holding a Holiday Bazaar, Sat., Dec. 6 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Home baking will be featured along with hand-crafted items, Christmas decorations and many other items. The location is south side of Hwy. 7, near Robinson Street.

Around Town

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Richards leave the Stouffville United Church following their recent wedding. The bride is the former Pat Haining, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Haining, Fairview Avenue, Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Richards, Loretta Crescent, Stouffville. Following a honeymoon in western Canada, the happy couple have taken up residence in Barrie.

In season

The interior of the Stouffville I.G.A. Foodliner is beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

Benefit Dance

There are still a few tickets left for the John Turner Benefit Dance, Friday evening, at the Ballantrae Community Centre. The event is being sponsored by The Trojans' Rugby Football Club. Tickets ($7.50 each) are available at The Tribune Office.

Farewell gathering

Dan and Laurie Lacarte and family, formerly of Altona and later of Uxbridge, were honored Saturday evening by members within the congregation of St. James Presbyterian Church at a farewell gathering in the home of Gary and Ann Grundy, Hawthorne Avenue, Stouffville. Dan and Laurie and girls are now living at Burlington.

Lovely plates
