Diners gobble turkey

By ELSIE BOLAND
GOODWOOD — It was standing room only at the annual turkey supper put on by the United Church Women at Goodwood Hall last week. In fact, so many turned out, some had to be turned away, because we just ran out of food. The church ladies say they'll make up for it next year. In the meantime, thanks to everyone.

A Lions Club has been formed, and now we are waiting for the ladies to get busy and start a Lioness Club. If interested, call Bryan Plewes. While you're at the phone, you might call 640-2249 or 640-4562 for United Church plates and calendars.

Another successful turkey dinner and dance was held by the Couples' Club, Saturday night. We were very pleased to see Dr. Darling's daughter here. It was a reminder, too, of what a wonderful doctor we had in our midst. Mrs. Baker was very pleased to see her father's picture in the hall.

Wednesday night euchre winners at Goodwood Hall, were: Rita Parrott, Evelyn Bryant, Daisy Sellers, Charles Symes, George Middleton, Joyce McGuckin, Verna Smith, Irvin Kydd and Rosetta Evans won the door prizes. Next euchre is Nov. 26.

Last Monday, Goodwood Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Jones. Mrs. Irene Tindall led a discussion on Eleanor Todd's book, "Burr and Blackberries." It's available at Don Bell's store.

Little Stephen Richardson is home from Uxbridge Hospital. Kathleen May is also home.

Marjorie Woodland and daughter, Mrs. Don Thomas, attended the 60th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart John Thompson.
