

Rewards for academic excellence

Nancy Ku received numerous academic awards at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School's Commencement Exercises, Friday including The Robert Mole Memorial Bursary presented by Roger Mole.

A coveted School Letter was presented to honors graduate, Cheryl Stelling. She receives congratulations from former principal, Mervyn Witherow, now the principal at Huron Heights Secondary School, Newmarket.

Elson Miles, Councillor for Ward 6, presented the Town of Markham $50 Bursary to Jennifer Fair, R.R. 2, Markham.

The Stouffville Women's Institute Award was presented by Mrs. Norman Neale (left) to Janice Howe.

The Arthur Latcham Award valued at $200 was presented to Nancy Ku by Larry Latcham.

The $100 Music Mania Award for the Performing Arts was presented by Elva Newmarch (left) to Linda Earle.

Photos by Jim Thomas

The E.M. (Ted) Hawley Memorial Award for excellence in music was shared by Pauline Powell and Murray Johnson. Mrs. Hawley made the presentation.

The Kinette Club $100 Award was received by Margaret Ku. June Hopper made the presentation.

Charles Jackson (left), representing the Stouffville Machine and Tool Works Ltd., presented a $100 award to graduate Murray Johnson.

The York County Board of Education honored Grade 13 graduate Nancy Ku with two awards including a book and a cheque for $100. Trustee Harry Bowes made both presentations.

John Thiessen (left) was one of fourteen Ontario Scholars honored, Friday evening. A cheque for $100 was presented by former vice-principal Ron Mercer.

Fifteen year old Jennifer Fair received three academic awards, Friday evening—The Town of Markham $50 Bursary; the Chesebrough-Pond's Academic Proficiency Prize and the York County Board of Education Award.

The Frank Yake Leglon Award was presented by past-president Ivan Goudle, to Marek Kaczynski.