The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McDowell and family of Scarborough. They have purchased the residence of Pat Brown.
In a late autumn wedding, performed in the candlelit chapel of Trafalgar School, Whitby, Nov. 21, Clare Almack, youngest daughter of Lorne and Rhonda Almack, Claremont, was united in marriage to James Shatford, younger son of R. Grant Shatford. Clare was attended by her sister, Margaret and James, by his close friend, Stuart Mackay. Corrie Almack and Douglas Shatford, were ushers. The bride chose soft, warm browns for her wedding colors; her cream gown was appliqued with a trailing brown rose. Her chapel veil fell from a wide-brimmed hat, held in place with heather and brown silk flowers, which picked up the colors of her silk bouquet. Her sister wore complementary shades of brown and cream in a velour gown, she, too, carried a silk bouquet. The gentlemen of the bridal party wore orange silk boutonnières on their brown suits. The bride's mother wore a street-length apricot jersey over-laid on a flowered silk chiffon skirt and cape. The bridal party entered the chapel, with Wanda Dorose singing "Hymn of Joy". Clare and Jim were honored that Rev. Don Jones, who officiated at the bride's sister's wedding, was present to hear their vows. A reception and dance for more than 100 guests, followed at the Thunderbird Golf and Country Club, Ashburn. Clare and Jim are returning to Halifax until May. They will then move to Vancouver.
Congratulations to Jean Redshaw and Van Bell of Goodwood, married Nov. 29 at 7 p.m., in Claremont United Church.
Rosemary Timms, Jean Drake and Jan Brook attended a number of Christmas singouts with the Melody Makers of Markham. The barbershop chorus entertained at York Manor in Newmarket. On Monday, Dec. 15, they will sing at the Silver Jubilee Club in Stouffville.
Dorothy Middleton, of Stouffville along with Rosemary Timms, Annie Porter and Olive Vine, had an enjoyable visit with former Claremont resident, Mrs. William Briggs, now of Scarborough.
White Gift Sunday will be held in the Claremont United Church, Dec. 7 at 11:15 a.m.
