Experience pays off

STOUFFVILLE — If the Midget A hockey team feel disappointed over their loss to the superstar AHL Selects on Saturday evening, they shouldn't. The game, organized by the Amateur Hockey League to raise funds for the Midget's trip to Sweden, was hockey at its best; despite the Midget's 9-1 loss.
 Slap shots were allowed, but the game was strictly non-contact, which made it tough on the Midgets when it came to digging the puck out of the corners.
 Team captain Dave Mahaffey saved the Midgets from being blanked, with an unassisted goal in the first period with only five minutes left to play.
 The Selects tallied four goals in the first, and five in the second period, by which time the Midgets had managed to get their game together for a scoreless final frame.
 'Old man' of the AHL Selects, Eric Scaife, had a fine game; scoring a hat-trick. Lionel Villeneuve tallied a pair. Singles came from Glen Whitbread, Peter Mabley, Ken Chupa, and Mike Jones.

Best game of season

STOUFFVILLE — Playing their best game of the season the Bantam A's demolished a strong Port Perry side 5-1 in the Wednesday night game on Nov. 26.
 Lou Tesoro was in great form; picking up a hat trick for the A's, with singles going to Bill Hutchison and Mike Feasby.
 Port Perry's Jeff Johnstone spoiled Joe Risk's chance of a shutout.
 In a close game against Oshawa on Monday evening, the A's dropped a close 3-2 decision in a fast skating, evenly matched game.
 Netminder Joe Risk was outstanding, stopping a total of 24 shots. Joe Tesoro picked up the Bantam's tally.
 Next home game is against Pickering Village on Monday night at 7:00 p.m.
 No, at least not yet. On returning to Sweden last year the Haninge hockey team was invited to attend a reception at their town hall. They went complete with Stouffville minor hockey jackets to receive congratulations from Haninge town council. The jackets original owners are off on December 26, to renew old friendships and retain their unbeaten record against their Swedish friends.
