

Clippers lose again

STOUFFVILLE — plagued by injuries - are going through a bad patch. Coach Wayne Emmerson has rung the changes so often this season he must feel more like a bell ringer than a hockey coach. Their 4-1 loss on Sunday evening came as no surprise. The defence was short of Price and

Johnson, as well as Raymer, Waite, Gierink and Burrows. The Clippers were saved from being shutout by a third period goal by Byblow, on Mark Fockler's assist. Outshot 34-30, the Clippers lacked power in all departments; even Ferguson missed on a wide open net, sending the puck over the top. Next home game is on Saturday, Dec. 6, against Bowmanville at 7:30 p.m. Their away game against Lindsay is on Friday, Dec. 12, at 8:30 p.m.

Defenceman Joe Twinney is "Clipper of the week". Joe, considered one of the strongest players on the team, is in his first year with the Clippers. His chances of Allstar status this season are high. Jim Holt.

A's dominate

STOUFFVILLE — In OMHA play on Friday evening the Midget A's skated to a 12-3 win over Uxbridge. The Stouffville squad dominated all three periods with some fine plays in which just about everybody managed to score.

Brian Todd and Scott Frisby headed the list with two goals apiece while singles came from Jim Edwards, Dale Leger, Barry Green-shields, Tim Yeomans, Glen Lewis, Gary Teggart, Dave Mehaffey and Jeff Hutchinson. Assists came from Dave Mehaffey (3), Glen Lewis (2), Barry Green-shields, Scott Frisby, Tim Yeomans, Gary Teggart and Jeff Hutchinson.

In Sunday's penalty ridden game at Cobourg the Midgets dropped a 7-3 decision to the current league champions. Worse than the loss itself was the fact that team captain Dave Mahaffey is under a three game suspension, at a time when he is needed most; for practice prior to the team's Swedish trip which starts on December 26.

Next home game is on Friday, Dec. 5, against Pickering Hockey Association. Face-off 9:00 p.m.

dropped a heartbreaking 3-2 decision to their Oshawa visitors, who picked up their winning goal with only 52 seconds left to play.

Mike Rosario and Jamie Campbell tallied for the Bears, with assists going to Jeremy Hall and Keith Piette.

Cable Baker played an exceptionally strong game in defence. A much needed 2 points came the Bears way when they played away to Pickering Village on Saturday. Their 5-0 shutout highlighted the play of Daniel Humphries, who scored three of the Bears goals. Jamie Campbell added a single and an assist, and Keith Piette picked up two assists. Lee Scaife rounded out the score on Jeremy Hall's assist.

Johnny Humphries was strong on defence backed by excellent netminding from Dan Wilson and Jason Falvo. Despite some fine work by Jamie Campbell, who picked up both Stouffville goals, the Bears got hammered 7-2 by Markham on the Sunday. Assists went to Keith Piette and Daniel Humphries.

In Monday night's game against Sharon the Bears folded 4-2, despite outplaying the opposition. Cable Baker and Daniel Humphries picked up singles with assists to Jason Underwood and Keith Piette. Robbie Mountjoy was particularly strong in defence.
