Dump Lindsay

STOUFFVILLE — The Bantam A's battled their way through a snowstorm on Sunday, to arrive at Lindsay with only ten players for their important league game.

Despite the player shortage the A's played a strong game, coming away with a 6-1 win.

Lou Tesoro tallied a pair in the first period, on assists from Bill Hutchison.

Ken Burrows gave the A's their third goal early in the second period putting the game well in hand for the visitors.

Chris Brown and Bill Hutchison added singles in the final period.

In exhibition play, Stouffville downed Oshawa 4-0, but were edged 6-5 by a strong Unionville team.

During the Christmas break the Bantam A's will travel to Downsview arena, for the North York Invitational Bantam tournament on December 26-30.
