Thanks

As the Holiday Season approaches, and 1980 draws to a close, I take this opportunity to say thank you to all who have assisted in any way to get the Home Support Services for Seniors initiated and under way this past six months. To Helen Baatz our first Co-ordinator, to our Interim and our New Board, our Home Helpers, our Volunteers, and our Clients, it would not have been possible without each of you.

Different service

A different kind of Christmas Eve service will be held tonight at St. James Presbyterian Church. The service, beginning at 6:30, will feature a carol sing of Christmas music old and new. The rest of the service will be based around the construction of a banner highlighting different aspects of the story leading up to Christmas. A communion service will also be held. A warm welcome is extended to all.

Visitors welcome
Friends of Mrs. Florence Ross can visit her in her Newmarket Hospital room, 612. Her doctor estimates she will be six to eight weeks recovering from her car accident.

'Tis the Season to hope every day is trimmed with everything bright and merry!
