

Sweet as a Pina...

School work holds no qualms for 17-year-old Helen. She actually likes it. And we like our "Girl Next Door."

STOUFFVILLE — "Sweet as a Pina Colada" would sum up the smile of pretty Helen Johnstone of Dickson Hill.

Seventeen year old Helen is a grade 11 student at SDSS and lives at Dickson Hill, where she has been a resident for the last six years. She previously lived in Toronto.

An outgoing person; she loves parties, most kinds of music and, although abstemious, recently discovered Pina Colada.

A great traveller, she has already been to the Caribbean many times and knows Barbadoes, the Bahamas, St. Lucia and Jamaica better than downtown Toronto. She has also been to England and Florida and plans a two month trip to Calgary this summer to visit friends.

In February she is off to Jamaica, to help get rid of the winter blues. School work holds no qualms for Helen. She actually likes art, mathematics, english and geography and has an artistic bent; she recently worked backstage during Variety Night, improving the cast with her deft hand and make-up brush.

Her hobbies, apart from party-going, are roller skating, cross-country skiing, badminton and swimming. She is also enrolled in the high school driving program and hopes to get her licence sometime in February. She is interested in journalism and one day would like to work for a fashion magazine and perhaps travel the fashion centres of the world.

Asked if she had a special wish for Christmas she replied "Well, if the Midget team had a spare seat to Stockholm I wouldn't mind going for Christmas; providing I sat with Garry Teggart."

Plays were: Christmas Every Day, The Christmas Sorrow, What Christmas Means to Me, and an original play, CSS-TV's Christmas Report, by Mrs. Myers enrichment group.

Newcomers get welcome

By MILDRED MC-TAGGART
GREENWOOD — Mrs. William Smith entertained a number of neighbors at an afternoon Luncheon, Dec. 18. Guests of honor were Mrs. Van Roeder, Mrs. David Codling and Mrs. Peter Hobbs, all recent newcomers to Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mowbray entertained the staff of the Township of Pickering library board and their spouses at a Christmas buffet supper at their home Dec. 19.

The Valleyview School was filled to capacity on the nights of Dec. 16 and 17, at the Christmas concert. Musical numbers included carols from the school choirs, a flute trio, woodwind ensemble and Mr. Ward's grade 7 band.

Plays were: Christmas Every Day, The Christmas Sorrow, What Christmas Means to Me, and an original play, CSS-TV's Christmas Report, by Mrs. Myers enrichment group.

Mrs. Stan Nicholson was admitted to Oshawa General Hospital, where he had major surgery last week. He is improving and hopes to be home in the new year.

The crisp, bright day, and the church with Christmas decorations and trees, all added to the beauty of the Sunday morning service. The service began with a trumpet prelude of Christmas carols by Rosalie Brooks, accompanied by Ken McTaggart on the organ. Rosalie also played O, Holy Night during the offering. The choir sang two anthems, The First Christmas Morning and The Christmas Lullaby. Rev. A.M. Butlers theme was My Grace.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pegg had dinner Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. William Pegg of Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pascoe and Mildred McTaggart joined Claremont Seniors Saturday night, to see The Living Christmas Tree, at People's Church, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morden held a pre-Christmas party at their home, Saturday night.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stell, Brooklin; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox, Ashburn; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keeler, Port Perry; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Himmen, and Lynn Whitwell, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hooker, Manchester; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hooker, Greenbank; Mr. and Mrs. Tim Logeman, Ottawa.
