

An economical way to travel — fifteen year old Bruce May of Thicketwood Boulevard, Stouffville and his trusty dog 'Prince'. —Jim Thomas.

Dog power

STOUFFVILLE— When most boys are thinking of owning a driver's licence, 15 year old Bruce May of Thicketwood Boulevard, has a better idea—dogpower.

With 'Prince', his year-old collie, Bruce travels about the subdivision aboard his two-wheeled 'sully'. When the road is snowy, he reverts to skis or a sleigh. Prince enjoys it every bit as much as Bruce.

Initial training sessions were conducted with Bruce riding a skateboard. Later, with the help of his father, Norman, he built himself a nifty rig.

Bruce and Prince are a common sight on Thicketwood Boulevard and beyond. On occasions, they take to nearby fields, skimming along on skis or on a sleigh.

Praise efficiency

Dear Mr. Thomas:

On behalf of the Mowat family, 162 Main Street West, a sincere thank you to the Stouffville Fire Department, the York Regional Police Department and all the brave persons involved in handling the blaze at the Adams' home, Dec. 20. It was a display of efficiency and organization that brought the fire under control in a relatively short period of time.

We appreciate the effort made in protecting our home on the adjoining lot through the hosing down of the west side of the house.

Although now it is a tragic fact that a life was taken in that fire, it is a fact that every effort was made to extinguish the blaze as quickly as possible.

We express our heartfelt thanks for the service provided. We're certain we speak for the entire community when we say how much we appreciate the efficiency of the Stouffville and Markham Fire Departments and the York Regional Police Department.

Sincerely,
The Mowat Family,
Main Street West,
Stouffville.

Showed sense

Dear Sir:

Thank goodness there was at least one man in Parliament who was not carried away by the hysteria generated by the media over the death, tragic though it was, of John Lennon.

George Bernard Shaw said that this earth seems to be the lunatic asylum of the universe and John Gamble, M.P., must have had an inkling of this when he took the stand that the assassination of this entertainer was not of sufficient national importance to take up the time of the House. In my opinion, he displayed a sense of proportion when our country is floundering amidst massive problems which cannot be solved in partisan fashion.

Sincerely,
Andrew Glen,
Locust Hill.
