Fires five

STOUFFVILLE — Oldham sparked Standard Aggregate to a lopsided 8-1 win over Newtonbrook. Jason Arends also collected two assists and Jason Oldham, one. Single tallies came from the sticks of Mark Edwards, Tom Oldham, Sean Bourne and Trevor Quessel. Don McLevan picked up an assist as did Sean Bourne. In addition to his goal, Mark Edwards assisted on two others. Keith Northey spoiled a shut-out bid by Standard with his team's lone marker. He picked up a pass from P. Woodward and blinked the light.

Hathaway 7, Commercial 3
Brad Lilleberg continued his hot scoring streak for Hathaways, firing three goals in a 7-3 romp over Commercial Sand & Gravel. The week before, he counted five.

Athlete honored

STOUFFVILLE — Doug Feasby, a student attending Concordia University in Montreal, and a member of the hockey club there, was recently named the C.I.A.U. "Athlete of the Week".

It marks the first time a Concordia player has been selected for this honor. Feasby is the university's top scorer, adding two goals and two assists in his club's recent 10-3 romp over Laval. Last year, the smooth-skating forward set a Concordia record with 114 points, including 48 goals. Doug is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Feasby, Blake Street.

NIGHT SCHOOL UPDATE

The following are short course descriptions for some of the new courses beginning in January.

TAPESTRY AND RUG MAKING - Judi Von Zuben (Frame Loom Weaving)
Basic Tapestry and Rug Making techniques will be taught in order that students can apply this craft in wall hangings, pillow covers, hand bags, etc. Creative resources will be stimulated by giving students the experience and satisfaction of working with colour and texture. Student-made portable frame looms will be used.

CALLIGRAPHY - Terry Best
This is a step towards beautiful handwriting and specialized and recognizable scripts. The Canadian Method of handwriting is very impressive to all who can appreciate the beauty of properly formed letter shapes, and one would also be able to design invitations, menus and signs as well as improve messy handwriting.

ELECTRONICS AS A HOBBY - Mike Jenkins
Directed towards the hobbyist, or person who might want to pursue a career in electronics. Includes introduction to electronic devices. Fundamental math as applied to electronics. Introductory practical electronic circuits.

ACTIVITIES FOR THE PRE-SCHOOL CHILD - Mrs. Smith
This 10-week course will provide participants with numerous activity ideas for the pre-school child through practical workshops. The Course will include suggested creative, literary, science oriented, musical and physical activities as well as toy-making ideas. The Programme is geared to the interests of parents, students, baby-sitters and recreational leaders providing practical classroom participation. Material costs - approx. $10.00

DOG OBEDIENCE CLASS - Don Rintoul
- NOVICE BEGINNERS - Dog obedience and general training principles, including pet care and management. This involves the solving of any behavioural problems and includes novice obedience exercises.
- NOVICE ADVANCED - only dogs that have gone through a Novice Beginners' course are eligible. Course includes OFF Leash Heeling, Jump Work, Retrieving, Ring procedure and Distance Control.
NOTE: All dogs entered in either course MUST PROVIDE PROOF of up-to-date rabies and parvo virus vaccinations.

DANCING - Chris Simmons
Wednesday night's dancing program will be divided into two parts. The first hour and a half will deal with Latin and Ballroom Dancing. The second hour and a half will be made up of fun and line dances featuring things like the Gay Gordon, Sloss, Alley-cat, Rock and Roll and some square dances or whatever else appeals to the participants. If students do not wish to take part in both sessions, they may sign up for one.

WOOL ART - Chuck Valleau
Covers all techniques of needle and wool from beginners to expert. Materials can be purchased directly from the instructor.

COMMUNICATION SKILLS - Marion Melin
This is a course for adults to help upgrade reading and writing skills. It will also deal with some life skills such as filling out job applications, insurance forms, and many other important necessities.

GENERAL INFORMATION
Registration Night is on Wednesday, January 7th from 7 to 9 p.m. The new courses will begin the week of January 12th on their respective nights.
If you would like to enrol in an existing 20-week course, classes will resume the week of January 5th and you can register for them on Monday, January 5th at 6:30 p.m.

Future star on ice

Two year old Tammy Willis (she'll be three, Jan. 6), daughter of John and Lynda Willis, Maytree Avenue, Stouffville, took to the ice, Friday, during a free-skating afternoon sponsored by the Re-cycling Group. Mom helped her tie and untie her skates but otherwise, she managed quite well on her own. —Jim Thomas

Blast Lakefield

STOUFFVILLE — With Jim Chilvers, Lorne Potter and Ken Dix leading the way, Stouffville's Anderson Haulage Clippers completely overpowered Lakefield in an O.H.A. Jr. 'C' game, Saturday night.

The trio scored two goals apiece in a 10-3 romp over the visitors. Single tallies came from the sticks of Bruce Rugelis, Tony Leger, Greg Ferguson and team captain Kevin Bartley.

Stouffville led 3-1 at the end of the first and 9-2 going into the third.

In spite of the lopsided score, Dean Howes turned in a fine performance between the pipes for the Clippers, blocking a number of close-in drives.

Bartley and Ferguson picked up assists on Potter's first goal. Steve Spang and Dave Raymer assisted on the tally by Rugelis. Leger fed Chilvers the puck for his initial tally.

In the second period, Tony Leger continued his fine play, assisting on two others. Tony Herold also

Marlene Streit

Top golfer

STOUFFVILLE — Marlene Streit, R.R. 4, Stouffville, has once again brought honor to this municipality.

Mrs. Streit has been ranked third among the top ten women golfers in Canada.

The poll, released last week by the Canadian Ladies' Golf Association, places Judy Ellis of Kitchener and Barbara Bunkowsky of Burlington in the first and second spots respectively. Fourth place, behind Mrs. Streit is Stacey West of Toronto. The remaining six all reside outside Ontario.

In the class for Canadian Jr. Girls, 18 years and under, Ontario took seven out of ten placings.

Lorne Potter put the icing on the cake in the third on passes from Rugelis and Bartley.

Jim Chilvers and Ken Dix struck for their second goals on power plays. There were 24 penalties in total, fourteen to Lakefield and ten to Stouffville.

A New Year's Day contest pairs the Clippers against Uxbridge in the Stouffville Arena. Game time is 1 p.m.
