

Around Town

Performer

Mr. and Mrs. James Brazier, Hawthorne Avenue, and a party of about twenty, attended a matinee performance of "Cinderella" at Hamilton Place, starring Barbara Hamilton and Tom Kneebone and also featuring Tim Brazier as one of the dancers in the production.

Family all home

Jim and Genevieve Carder, Church Street, Stouffville, had all their children home on Boxing Day including Bill and Marnie and family of Scarborough; Gordon and Marylou and family of Markham; Ruth from Mississauga and Bob of Stouffville.

Head foreman

Stan Schmidt, Burkholder Street, has been promoted to a foreman's position with Inland Publishing Co. Limited. Stan works out of the Inland plant at Newmarket. The Era (Newmarket); The Tribune (Stouffville) and the Economist and Sun (Markham) are all composed at this location. Promoted to an assistant foreman's post is Steve Renaud, formerly of Musselman's Lake.

To Mattawa

Al and Florence Stacey and family, R.R. 2, Stouffville, travelled to Mattawa on New Year's Day to visit with Mrs. Stacey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Blake. On Christmas Day, Hector and Lena Trahan of Schomberg enjoyed dinner at the Stacey home.

At son's home

Ed and Doris MacAloney, R.R. 3, Stouffville, had only a short distance to travel Christmas Day. They visited with their son and daughter-in-law, Brian and Bonnie MacAloney and family, Lloyd Avenue, Stouffville. On New Year's Day, Brian and Bonnie and children returned the favor.

Christmas at cottage

Don and Maris Anderson and family, Elizabeth, Mike, Jane and Susan, Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville, enjoyed Christmas at their cottage on Lake Simcoe. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Norm Anderson and Dr. and Mrs. George McPherson.

To Burlington

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alsop and family, Maytree Avenue, motored to Burlington, Christmas Day, to visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rines. Altogether, about twenty were present for the day.

At Granite Club

Dr. and Mrs. Doug Brodie and family, Glad Park Avenue, enjoyed a Christmas night gathering at the Granite Club, Toronto, and later visited with daughter Jane at her apartment in the city. Earlier, they were pleased to entertain Doug's mother, Mrs. Ethel Brodie, here in Stouffville.

Enjoyable Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pipher, Sunset Boulevard, had an enjoyable Christmas with members of their family present for the day including Murray and Isobel Pipher and son Doug of Markham; a friend of Murray's, Robert Webb, all the way from Switzerland but presently working in the United States; Olive and Murray Daniels of Stouffville; Robert and Cathy Daniels and son Philip from Echo Bay, Ont., and Marilyn and Richard Miller and son Chris from Melville.

Wonderful Christmas

It was a wonderful Christmas at the home Newman and Susanne Wallis, O'Brien Avenue. To make the event a little different, the children slept by the tree, Christmas Eve. When all awoke the next morning, they opened their stockings, then surprised Mom and Dad by serving them breakfast in bed. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Wallis joined the kids for the opening of gifts, then sat down to a sumptuous dinner. On hand to share in the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. George Manning of Guelph and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Manning and children, David and Paula of Kitchener.

58th Anniversary

Jim and Jean Thomas and family, Rupert Avenue, were pleased to have their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Thomas of Markham and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pascoe of Greenwood, visit with them, Dec. 27; also Marjorie Holden, O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville. The occasion was Jim's parents' 58th wedding anniversary.

Bingo

Beginning Jan. 12 and every second Monday, the Stouffville Legion is holding bingos in the hall starting at 8 p.m. Winners will receive cash prizes. The admission price is one dollar and this includes two free cards.

From a distance

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mercer, Jacqueline and Matthew from Sussex, New Brunswick and Peter Sinclair from Vancouver, British Columbia, spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Aldine Sinclair, Maytree Avenue, Stouffville.

From Markdale

Dr. and Mrs. Neil Smith of Markdale and formerly of Stouffville, visited New Year's Eve and New Year's Day with Mr. and Mrs. Reg Button, O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville.

Call from Ireland

Bob and Kay Haslam, Ninth Line South, Stouffville, were pleased to receive a long-distance telephone call from Bob's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin, New Year's Eve. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin reside near Irvinestown in Northern Ireland. They hope to come to Stouffville in August.

Appreciation

After six weeks in hospital, Kay Hudson returned home, Sunday. Mrs. Hudson suffered a broken hip back in November, when she slipped on a patch of ice while walking the dog near Goodwood Public School. During her period of confinement, she was the recipient of more than 150 cards and letters, husband Graham told The Tribune. "The get-well messages were very much appreciated," he said. He praised the care his wife received at St. John's Convalescent Hospital, North York. "They couldn't have been better," he said. Considering the seriousness of the injury, he felt she had made quick recovery.

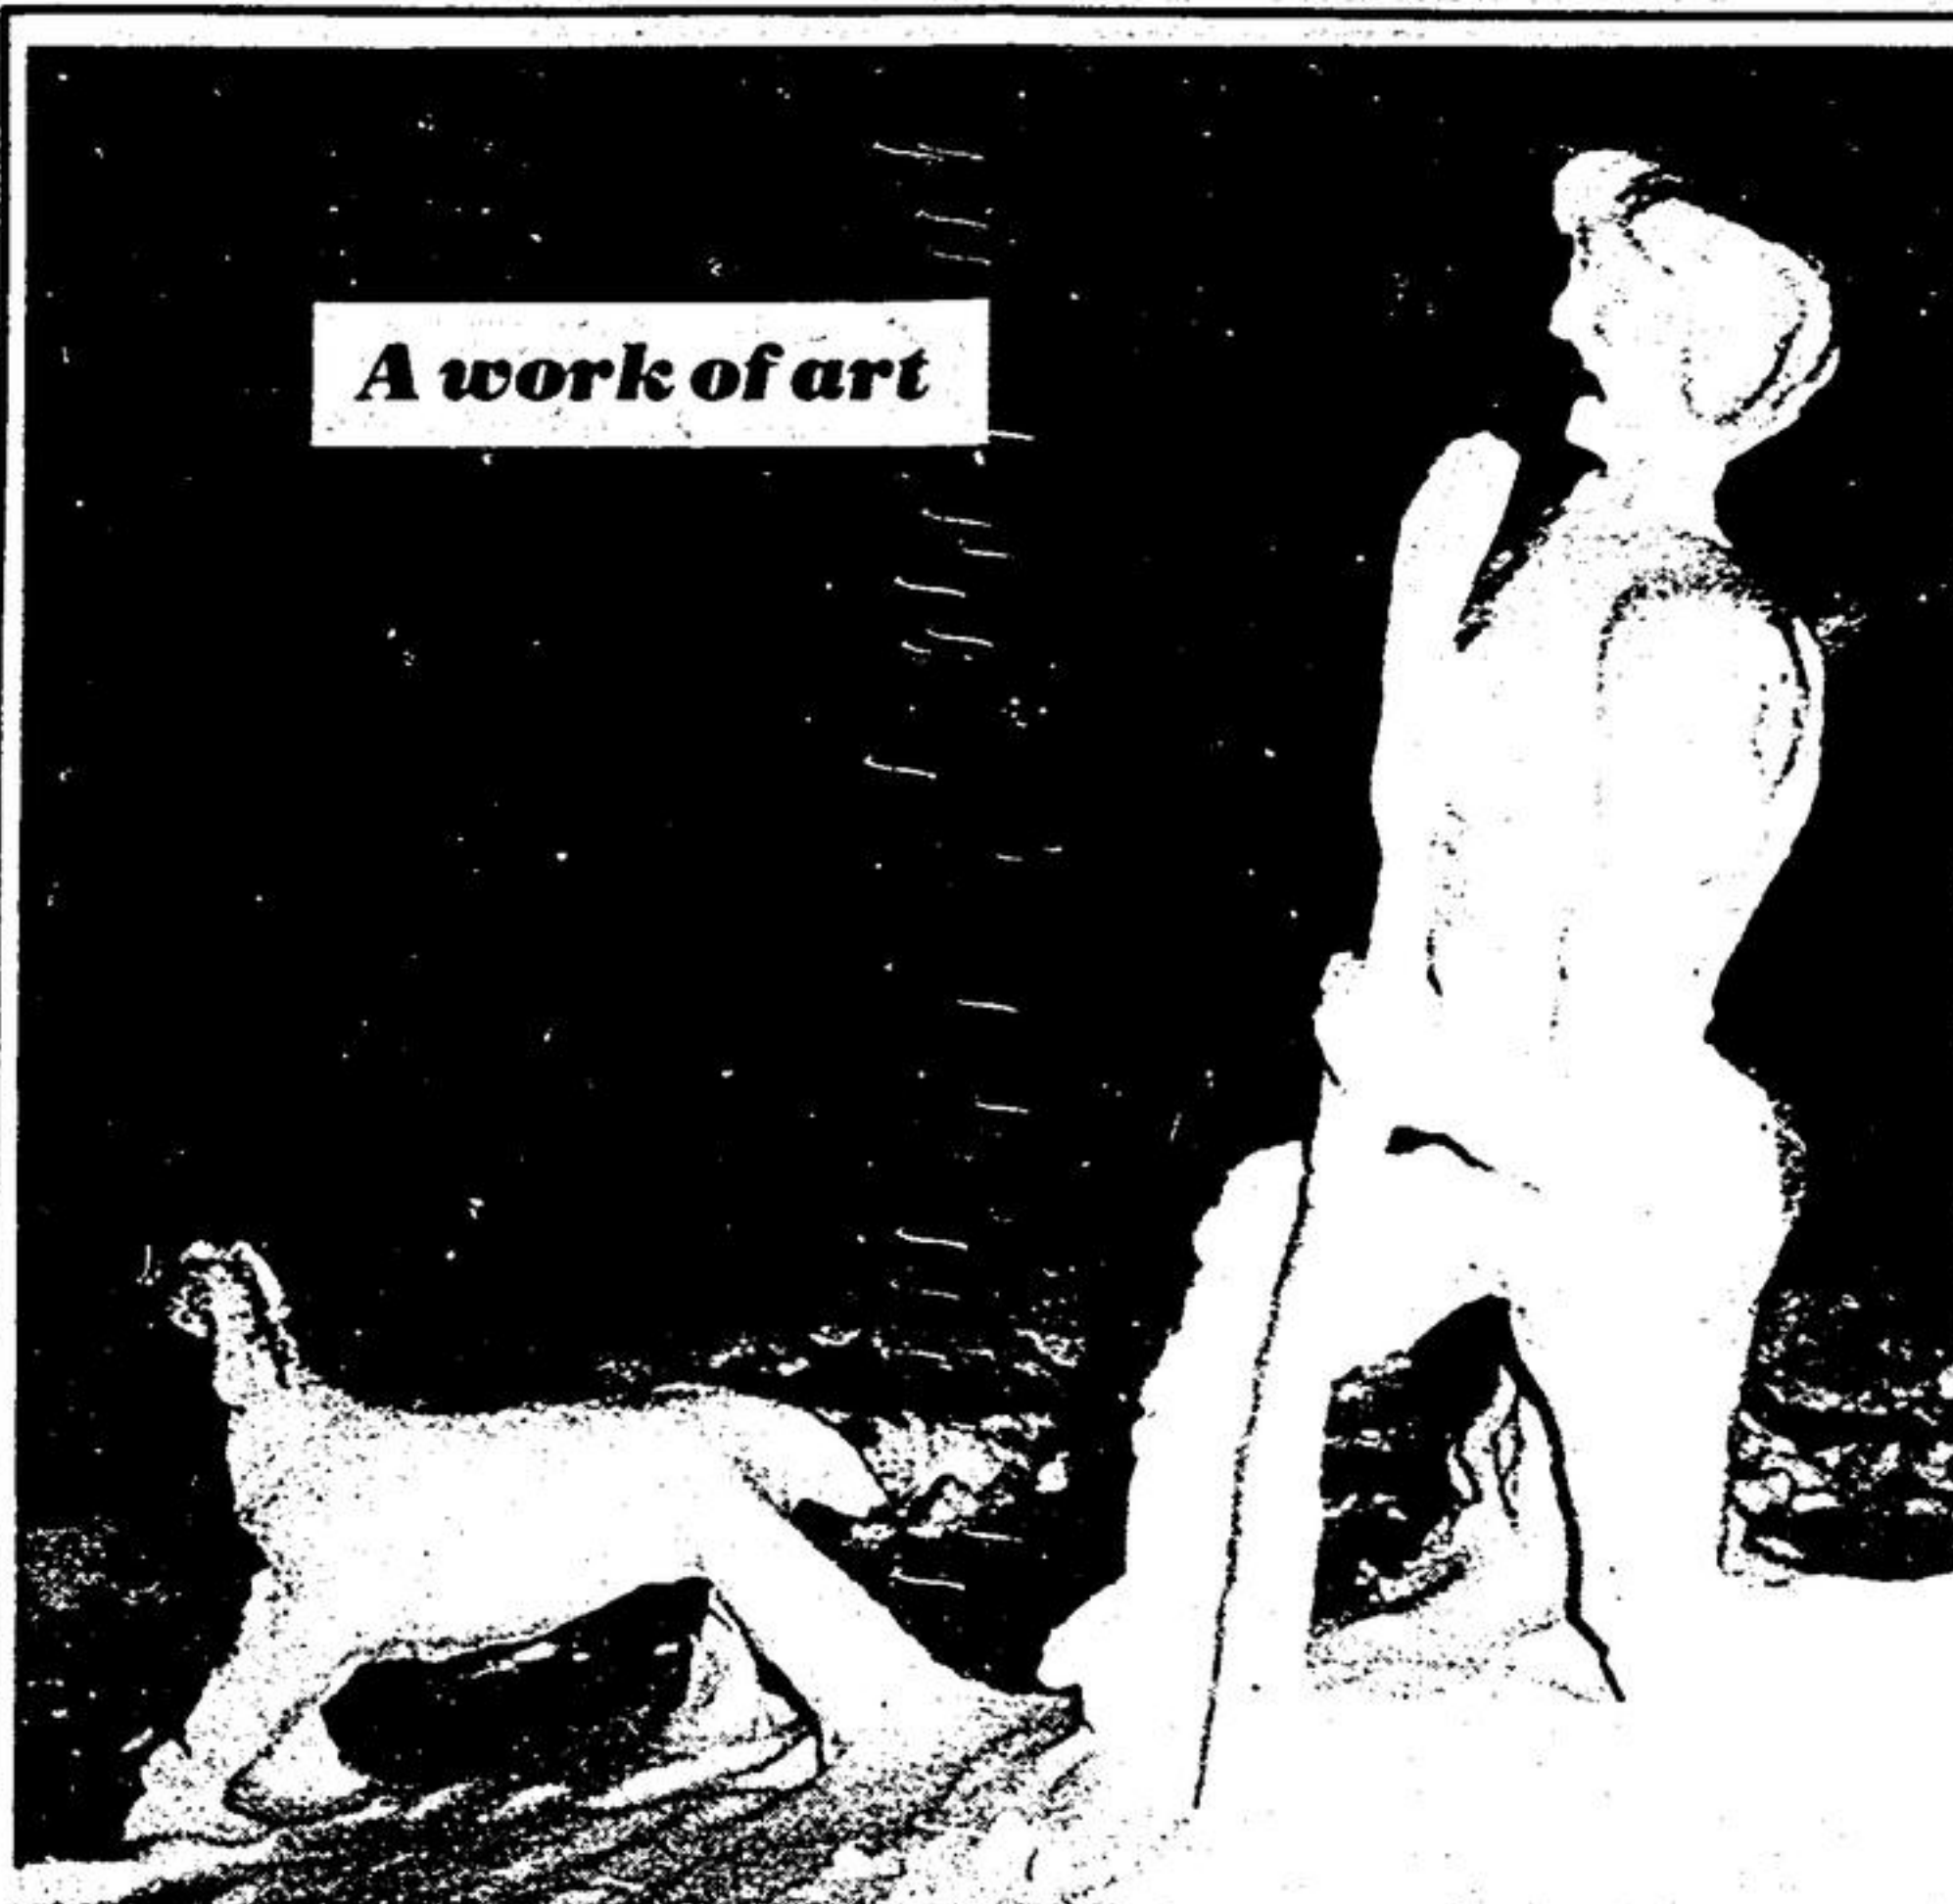

Feeling better

Les Wilson, local AMC and Esso dealer, Ninth North and Main Street, is reported considerably improved following a recent illness, but still confined to his home.

To Greenbank

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Macklin, Jennifer and Doug, Vanzant Court, Stouffville, enjoyed Christmas at the home of Bob's sister and brother-in-law, Pat and Neil Raines and children Billy and Robert at Greenbank. Also present were Bob and Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Macklin of Clinton, Ont., near London.

A work of art

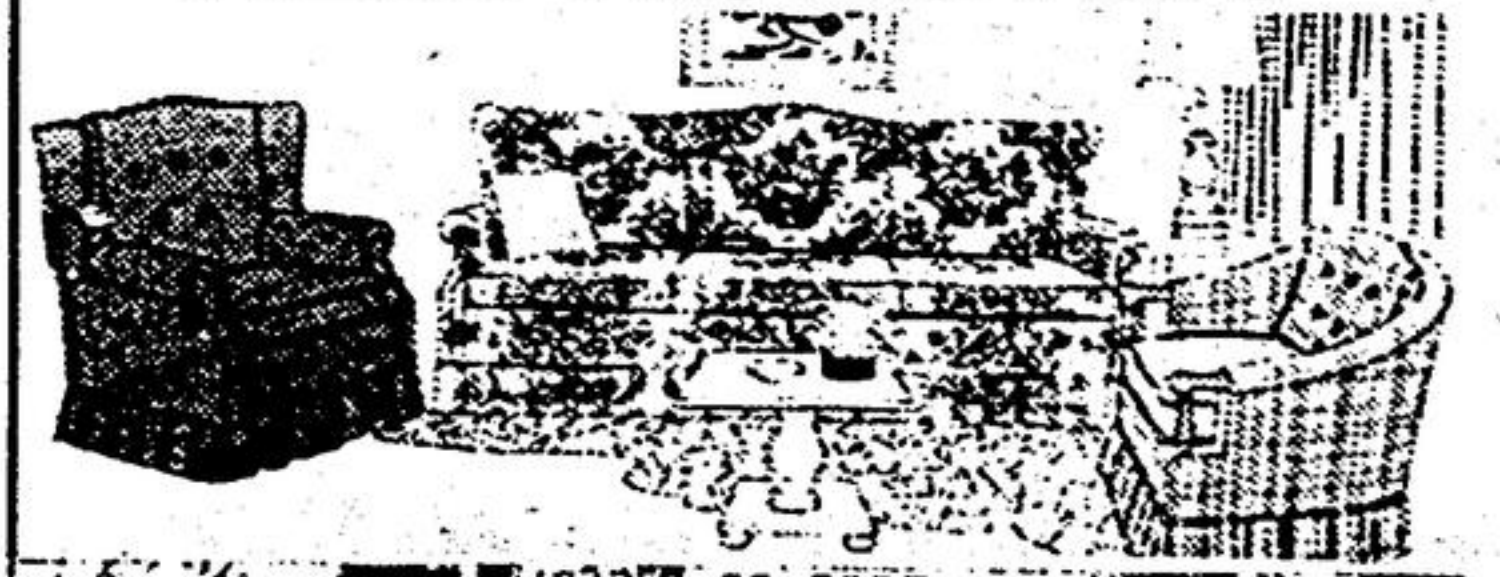

Martin Valleau of 104 Park Drive North, Stouffville, has produced the season's best snow sculpture. The shepherd and his sheep has been the subject of many admiring glances. Conditions were ideal at the time, Martin told The Tribune. It took about 1½ hours to complete. The only casualty was when the shepherd's one arm fell off, but this was quickly repaired.
