Hold leaders

BOWMANVILLE — In OMHA Junior 'C' play here on Friday evening the Anderson Haulage Clippers came within an ace of beating the league front runners — Bowmanville.

by Kenny Dix (unassisted), and Kevin Bartley from Norm McKenzie and Lorne Potter.

A relapse by the Clipper defence gave Bowmanville their chance late in the period, with a pair of quick goals less than two minutes apart.

Having killed Bowmanville's power-play, halfway through the final period the Clippers gave up their tenuous one goal lead. Bowmanville scored within seconds of their returning to full strength, to tie the game 3-3.

Lorne Potter justified his return to the Clipper line-up with two assists, after a long absence with a shoulder injury.

Dean Howe put in a fine performance in net. This Friday will see the Clippers face Uxbridge on their home ice. Face-off 8:30 p.m.

Port Perry visit Stouffville twice, for games on Saturday at 7:30 p.m., and again on Tuesday night at 8:00 p.m.

Tie champs 5-5

STOUFFVILLE — The Edwards Murphy Bantam A's continue their winning streak undefeated since Dec. 10, they continued to impress last Monday evening with a 7-0 win over Port Perry.

Rick Vallee was hot in net; leading his team to the shutout.

Scott Mellor got the A's off to a quick start early in the first period on a nice set-up by Chris Brown. Lou Tesoro collected two goals and an assist with singles going to Bill Hutchison and Chris Brown.

games all season; against Markham.

Trailing 5-3 in the closing minutes of the game, Chris Brown put in a superb effort to give the A's a 5-5 tie. The last goal came within 11 seconds of the buzzer with the Stouffville net empty. Mike Feasby and Lou Tesoro set Chris up for the final goal.

Todd fires five

Midgets win two

STOUFFVILLE — Bryan Todd's five goal salvo was too much for Oshawa when they came up against Stouffville's Midget A's in OMHA league play on Tuesday, Jan. 13. A third period hat trick by Todd, combined with John Carrick's excellent goaltending, sunk the Oshawa team 6-3.

At the end of the second period the game was tied 2-2; both goals came from Todd on assists by Mark Murphy and Jeff Hutchison; the second assist by Howie Parent.

Dale Leger put the Midgets ahead early in the third period on an assist by Scott Frisby, which was Todd's signal to fire his three goal broadside. Assists came from Tim Yeomans, Dave Mehaffey and Glen Lewis.

The Midgets did it again on Friday evening when they downed Port Perry on home ice.

It was a combined team effort, with goals going to Frisby, Todd, Lewis and Mehaffey. However, the A's were a little lax and played only as well as was required to stay ahead of the opposition. Assists went to Frisby (2), Todd (2), Murphy and Lewis.
