Huge puppets

STOUFFVILLE — Heather Rigby, RR 2, Claremont will be operating a one-woman show at Latham Gallery, Feb. 19 and 21, but she won't be alone.

The contradictory event will take place when Heather runs her life-size puppets through their parts in a fast-moving drama, called "Man in the Moon."

The event begins at 8 p.m., Feb. 19, and 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Other events scheduled for February are: Feb. 21 - Re-cycling Craft Day, 1 p.m.; Pottery Workshop, 9:30 a.m.; Feb. 27 - Comedy Film Night, 7:30 p.m.

Films to be shown are: Bambi Meets Godzilla, Bambi's Revenge, Doonesbury Special and a film about comic Woody Allen.

The Re-cycling Craft Day will show participants how to make use of waste materials.

Birdbox workshop

Three bird box workshops are planned for the Kortright Conservation Centre, west of Hwy. 400 and south of Major Mackenzie Drive.

The event, sponsored by the Ministry of Natural Resources, will be held Feb. 22, March 1 and March 8. Times are 11 a.m., 1 p.m., and 2:30 p.m.

Admission is $1 for adults; 75 cents for children with a $3 family maximum. A small fee will be charged to cover the cost of materials.

Pre-cut materials are used. Once assembled, participants can take their boxes home, erect them and wait for feathered lodgers.

The workshops are being offered on a first come, first served basis. For additional information, call 661-6600.

Driver jailed

MARKHAM — A 47 year old Markham area man, charged with obstructing police, has been sentenced to 21 days in jail.

Peter John Sauve entered a plea of guilty when he appeared before Judge F.D. White in Newmarket Provincial Court.

According to evidence, Sauve, a truck driver happened on the scene of a serious motor vehicle collision, Jan. 31. The accused was asked to detour around the smashed cars along with other motorists. Instead, he forced his way through the road block and swore at one of the officers.

Judge White was told that the truck hit one of the constables before he could get out of the way. "I didn't strike him on purpose," Sauve told the court.

Judge White called the accused's actions "a flagrant disregard for an officer who was only doing his duty in a crisis situation". "I can't think of a more glaring breach of the law".

Hammer attack

PICKERING — A 45 year old Pickering man, said to be "acutely mentally ill" when he attacked the daughter of his common-law wife with a hammer, has been placed on probation following his appearance in Whitby County Court.

William Edward Milley struck 21 year old Kimberly Weldon with such force, it fractured her skull, the court was told. Milley entered a plea of guilty to the offence.

He claimed he was only trying "to knock the demons out" of the woman. The victim underwent surgery in a Toronto hospital following the attack. She bears a scar on her forehead from the blow.

A physician at the Penetanguishene Mental Health Centre stated that the accused had undergone treatment and he was now confident the patient had recovered.
