House champions

Curl girl

STOUFFVILLE

Congratulations to Kelly Glenn of Mill St., Stouffville. Kelly was a member of the victorious Centennial College Women's Curling team that recently took the championship title by downing Seneca College 8-5 in the O.C.A.A. finals. A tribute to Kelly by the campus newspaper stated "A little icing on the cake was the placing of Kelly Glenn in the Allstar team". Well done Kelly!

Trojans

STOUFFVILLE - Stouffville's rugby football club, The Trojans, started training this week at the high school gymnasium. Indoor training sessions take place every Tuesday evening from 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Stouffville springs surprise

Bantams win title

STOUFFVILLE - For the second week in a row Stouffville's girls' bantam allstar hockey team sprang a surprise; they won the Ontario Women's Hockey Association Bantam 'C' championship in three straight games.

Their first game of the series, against their old opponents Leaside, saw them trailing 2-1 with only five minutes left to play. However, a final last big effort saw Lynn Kranic and Lori Hogg give the Lions' sponsored home team a 3-2 win.

A carnation and beautiful pendant was the reward for most valuable player Bridget Edwards. Game two, at Victoria Village arena on Sunday, saw the girls skate better than ever to win 4-1 against Hillcrest. Alison Lowery headed the scoring with a hat-trick, while Julie Goldring added a single late in the game. Alison was awarded M.V.P. for her efforts.

Both Stouffville and London-Byron faced each other undefeated in Sunday afternoon's championship game. Both teams were obviously physically tired but mentally prepared. London had the advantage of bigger players and had not been scored against during the tournament, nevertheless, from the opening buzzer the Stouffville squad were obviously not intending to be treated as underdogs.

Both teams scored in the second period, Stouffville coming from Alison Lowery, thereby setting the stage for an exciting final frame. With three minutes left, Stouffville took a tripping penalty but managed to hang in with strong defensive play for a close 2-1 win. M.V.P. award went to Wendy Brjos, and Alison Lowery took the tournament scoring trophy for her six goal total and one assist.

Notwithstanding the great deal of satisfaction the girls received in winning the trophy, they were all recipients of a digital watch, presented by the Toronto Aeros Association.
