Midgets deadlock playoff final

STOUFFVILLE — To say the fans were disappointed would be an understatement. Having played so well in their semi-final against Huntsville, Stouffville's Midget hockey team flunked their opener against Shoreline on Saturday evening.

Bryan Todd set the pace with a goal (unassisted) five minutes into the game with no reply from Shoreline. It was a fast and furious pace with the home team a clear winner on all counts.

The rot started on a disallowed goal by Barry Greenshields, a sizzler from just inside the right-hand side of the blue line. A disputed 'player in the crease' call was a bad one, although, a Stouffville player did have his stick 'in'.

From there on in the Shoreline visitors took over. LaBute put them on the board at 6:31 to tie the second period 1-1.

Two power play goals in the final frame, plus two more in the final three minutes, left the home-side fans looking at a disheartening 5-1 loss at the buzzer.

Sunday's game was a completely different story; in fact a complete reversal of Saturday's performance by Shoreline.

who changed goalies, but the outcome would have been the same even if they had had two men in goal. Shoreline's one and only goal came in the last two minutes of the first period, in reply to goals by Bryan Todd (Greenshields and Mehahey), Mehahey from Todd, and Frisby from Mark Murphy to end the period 3-1.

The Midgets continued to play excellent hockey in the second period, with a goal from Dale Leger (Mehahey and Barry Smith). Shoreline were never given the chance to set up moves, they were 'checked out' time and time again. Not only was a full team effort apparent, but both defence and front line worked smoothly together.

Having dominated the first two periods, the midgets continued to run in like heavy surf; with Shoreline receding even further.

Jim Edwards (from Greenshields and Mehahey) made it 5-1 halfway through the frame, with the final three goals all coming within a two minute spread. Barry Smith from Mike Howard made it 6-1. Bryan Todd stole the puck off a defenceman's stick, passed to Scott Frisby for goal 7, while Leger (from Frisby and Murphy) tied it up at 8-1.

Final three games in the series will take place on Friday, Saturday and Sunday this weekend at Shoreline.

Coaching seminar

By Alfons Rubbens
STOUFFVILLE — Coaching clinics are springing up all over the province, and one of the major clinic instructors in York Region is Terry Redvers.

Terry is directing a four-week level one 'coaching theory' clinic at the Whitechurch Stouffville library, starting Monday April 13 from 7:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Other dates are April 21, 27 and May 5.

Response to this clinic has been high, with lots of interest from coaches in all branches of sport, covering all levels from youth to senior leagues.

The course will deal with a myriad of problems and situations that coaches are likely to encounter; from psychology to safety, and the role of the coach.

Terry has been teaching tennis for the last ten years and has heard just about every problem a coach can encounter; particularly the win-at-all-cost attitude prevalent today.

Notables, such as Canadian swimmer Kim Ludman and skating star Wallace Distelmeyer, along with a host of Olympic gymnast coaches, have received Terry's tuition, and he is convinced that coaches are all the better for attending his classes.

Unfortunately, sometimes, the coaches who most need direction are the ones who don't attend. Which one are you?

Amateur finals

STOUFFVILLE — This year's amateur hockey league champs are Farquharson Realty. They downed Stouffville Travel 5-1 on Sunday morning to take the title.

Contrary to expectations at the beginning of the playoff series the much expected challenge from the 'Green Machine' (Fawn's Sports) and the 'Men-in-red' (Pro-Hardware), never gained momentum. It was expected that these two teams, who had performed so well during the season, would have faced each other for top league honours, although Farquharson have been considered the dark-horse in the playoffs.

Final scores for the season are as follows:

Farquharson Realty 5 - Stouffville Travel 1
