

Special services

By Mildred McTaggart GREENWOOD — The congregation of Mt. Zion United Church will celebrate their 125th anniversary with special services on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. In the morning, Rev. A.M. Butler will bring the message with music by Mrs. Elmer Wilson and Mrs. Jean Parrott. The junior choir, under the leadership of Jeanine Carson will also sing. In the evening, Joyce McLean of Pickering is the guest speaker with music by The Myers Family of Mt. Zion. Carol Goodwin and Richard Thorley received many beautiful gifts at a shower, Sept. 14 in the Christian Education Centre of Greenwood United Church. Carol and Richard will be married Oct. 2.

Kinsale W.I. met at the home of Isobel Annis, Brougham, Sept. 16. Mrs. Sue Robinson of Brooklin was the guest speaker. Her address was entitled "Women in Agriculture".

Mr. and Mrs. Edgie Pegg spent the weekend at the Cruickshank cottage near Coe Hill.

Celebrate a 'golden day'

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, formerly of Pickering Twp., and now residing at RR 1, Brooklin, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with an 'open house' Saturday in Myrtle United Church. Jim Thomas MYRTLE — Saturday was an occasion George and Jean Gray will long remember — their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The milestone was celebrated with an 'open house' at Myrtle United Church. Many attended, some from a distance.

George Gray and Jean Wright were married a half-century ago in Green River Baptist Church. Rev. Robert W. Packer officiated. Because their marriage was the first solemnized there, the newlyweds were presented with a lovely Bible that they treasure very much.

Following the ceremony, the happy couple set out for Kingston and points east in George's fire engine-red 1926 Chevrolet Touring. "It was a pretty fancy car in those days," he remembers.

On their return, a surprise reception was in readiness at the bride's home, arranged by relatives and friends.

In 1935, Mr. and Mrs. Gray moved to a farm in Cherrywood, then to Whitevale and after that to the Rowbotham farm on the 7th Concession of Pickering. In 1948, Jean returned 'home' when she and her husband purchased her father's property on the Altona Road. That's where she was born. They remained there until their retirement in 1973 to a lovely home south of Myrtle at RR 1, Brooklin.

George and Jean are proud of their family that includes one son, Ted, at RR 1, Manilla, and three grandchildren, Deborah Gray, Toronto; Nancy Baker, RR 5, Sunderland and Gail Gray, RR 1, Manilla. An only daughter, Barbara Jean Pike passed away in 1977.

Mrs. Fred Greenfield

Courage despite pain

MARKHAM — It was twenty years ago that Mrs. Fred Greenfield, David Street, Markham, first learned she had cancer. She underwent surgery, an operation that doctors hoped would prove successful. However, the problem flared up again in 1969, necessitating further treatment, and again two years ago.

During all this time, she never complained, a display of courage that won her the admiration of a wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Greenfield passed away at home, Sept. 9. She was 73.

Born at Maple in the Twp. of King, June 5, 1908, Catherine Johnson later married Fred Greenfield, March 27, 1937. They lived at Ringwood 1½ years, then moved to Main Street, Markham for a short while before taking up residence on David Street where they've been for the past 41 years.

Mrs. Greenfield was an active member in the congregation of Grace Anglican Church. She also enjoyed the fellowship of quilting bees and eucres in the church hall.

For several years, she was the Mt. Joy news correspondent for the Markham Economist and Sun.

Surviving, besides her husband are son and daughter-in-law, Robert and Irene Greenfield, Newmarket; daughter and son-in-law, Ann and Ardon Maschke of Blackstock; three grandchildren, Donna and Wayne Greenfield and Esther Maschke and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Highstead of Ridgetown and Verna (Mrs. Earl Hisey) of Barrie. She was predeceased by two sisters, Edith and Doris.

Rev. Thomas Greene conducted the service, Sept. 12 from Grace Anglican Church assisted by Rev. James Brown with interment Grace Anglican Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were: Richard Greenfield, Edwin Greenfield, Frank Handy, Jim Thew, Grant Hisey and Richard Preston.

Mrs. Roy Fockler

Christian lady

VIVIAN — This community was saddened recently by the passing of Mrs. Roy Fockler of Vivian.

Mrs. Fockler, the former Mildred Clark, was one of five children born to Albert and Myrtle Clark, Ninth Line, north of Churchill. Since their marriage in 1945, Mildred and Roy have lived at Vivian.

Early in life, Mildred put her trust in her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. She was deeply devoted to her family, her friends and her church. Although seldom free from pain and suffering, she patiently and faithfully served her family and community. The esteem held for her by neighbors and friends was evident in the large number attending the memorial service in Stouffville Baptist Church; the beautiful floral tributes and the more than 150 Gideon Bibles placed in her name.

Rev. Donald Payne was in charge of the funeral with interment, Churchill Cemetery. The pall bearers were: David Francis, Tom Card, Earl Grose, Roy Flewell, Preston Hockley and Henry Harrison.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Glen of Vivian and Carl of Newmarket. Other family members are: Marjorie (Mrs. Gordon Holen), Stouffville; Ruby (Mrs. Gordon Taber), deceased; Thomas and Roy of Stouffville. All will sadly miss her.
