

French boys cuter claims exchange teen

By JIM IRVING
STOUFFVILLE — What's the big difference between Canada and France?

For 17 year old Isabelle Carrie of Marselles, the question contains the answer. And that is, it's big, very big, bigger in every way.

The houses are bigger, the cars are bigger and the boys are bigger too. However, French boys are cuter, Isabelle says.

Stouffville's guest, now returned to her homeland, spent several weeks here with close friend, Caroline Carr, 31 Clarke Street. Isabelle was practising her English while Caroline was brushing up on French.

The young ladies met when Caroline was working in Marselles as an "au pere". It was a live-in situation with Caroline performing certain household duties and looking after the children.

It was Caroline's idea. A graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, she felt it best to learn French by going to the country of its origin. While there, she attended grammar school for a couple of months.

Here in Stouffville, Isabelle echoed the sentiments of English-speaking people when abroad — folks talk too fast. Caroline made sure she slowed her conversation down a little so her guest could pick up every word.

During her stay, Caroline accompanied Isabelle to many well-known sites in Toronto including the Science Centre, the CN Tower, the C.N.E. and Ontario Place. Locally, took in Stouffville's main attraction, the Sales Barn.

An admitted hockey fan, Isabelle picked up a Team Canada sweater. She also 'discovered' lemonade and monogrammed T-shirts.

For Caroline, the exchange was a wonderful experience. She's confident Isabelle will be back and she's hopeful she can again visit Marselles. Either way, each country will be the beneficiary
