Life has its 'ups and downs'

By J.M. Nighswander
Growing old, like any of the other stages of life, has its "ups and downs". Some of the "downs" frequently include declining strength and vigor, and increasing aches and pains.

We who work every day with our older friends at Parkview are continually amazed and encouraged by their good cheer and healthy attitudes in spite of creaking joints and difficulties in getting around.

It just could be that life long habits of optimism and jolly good humour help keep one alive and make it possible to enjoy life into the 80's and 90's. What do our readers think?

One of the "ups" we are all gratefully enjoying at present is to have our Annie Walker home again. Miss Walker is 98 years of age, and had the misfortune last September to fall and fracture a hip. Following surgery and a short period of convalescence in hospital, she is again ambulatory and enjoys chatting with friends.

Community church pastors who have given leadership in recent Sunday evening services are Rev. Jim Byrne of the Ringwood Christian Church; Rev. Jim Clubine, Stouffville Missionary Church; and Rev. David Barker of Banfield Missionary Church.

Thursday evening programs have been provided by Alene Hoover with daughters Val and Chris who put on a special evening of music and singing and George Reesor who showed slides of the "Holy Land".

Persons who came from a distance to visit our Residents in recent weeks include - Gordon and Nellie Wilson of Providence Bay for Mrs. Annie Betz; Blanche Hill, Manitoulin Island for Mrs. J. Moyer; Eric and Helen Pilkington, Cambridge for Miss Millard and Mr. Dennis; Emiel and Elsie Griesbach, Collingwood for Mrs. Ada Heise; Mr. & Mrs. McKague, Lindsay for Mrs. M. Stewart; Robt & Maude Walker, Stayner, for Miss Annie Walker; Fred Rutland, Niagara Falls for Mr. J.N. Snyder; and Ken R. Crosby, Surrey B.C. for Mrs. R.H. Crosby.
