

Around Town

Attendance Climbs

The Moms and Tots Drop-In Centre will reopen on Tues., Jan. 5. Due to the increase in mothers and children, the Centre will also be open on Wednesday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The location is the Stouffville United Church. This service is a project of the Family Life Centre. Transportation can be arranged by calling 640-3411 or 640-4415.

Beautiful Tree

A lighted 20 foot Christmas tree at the home of Tom and Donna McCann, Cherry Street, R.R. 3, Stouffville, has been admired by neighbors and passers-by alike. Several called The Tribune Office, describing its beauty.

From Unionville

Clara Keith, Main Street East, Stouffville, enjoyed the company of Mr. and Mrs. William Couch and son Ken from Unionville, Christmas Day.

Final Draw

The final ticket in the Stouffville Merchants' Christmas Draw was selected Monday. It belonged to Mrs. Muriel Rae, 104 O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville.

Enjoy Messiah

On Dec. 18, the Adult Fellowship Group of St. James Presbyterian Church, Stouffville, attended the presentation of The Messiah at Massey Hall, Toronto. Those present included: Alan, Esther, Pauline and Pamela Powell; Ted and Lorraine Green; Martin and Joy Johannessen; Richard and Gayle Atkinson; Beth Northey, Nora Rocher, Zoli and Helen Hartaj; Joan and Joan Hazelwood; Stewart and Norah McElroy and Jim and Jean Thomas.

Late Leslie Leonard

Service was held Monday from the Stouffville Missionary Church for Les Leonard, following his passing Christmas Day at home. Surviving besides his wife, the former Norma Gray are three sons, Ken, Larry and Kevin; one daughter, Dianne; three grandchildren, Alicyn, Travis and Cameron; his father, Wesley; two brothers, Laverne and Wallace and two sisters, Norma Williams and Vera Priddle. Interment was in Stouffville Cemetery.

Late Walter Miller

Walter Miller, longtime Stouffville resident, passed away Wednesday morning at a nursing home in Pickering. Besides his wife Laura, he is survived by two sons, Stan and Jim and two daughters, Betty and Jean.

From Fort Wayne

Pauline Powell, a university student at Fort Wayne, Indiana, is spending Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Powell, and Pamela, 19th Avenue, R.R. 2, Markham. On Sunday, Dec. 20, Pauline rendered a lovely solo at the candlelight service in St. James Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Oran Fretz

Service was held from Heise Hill Church, Monday, for Mrs. Oran Fretz, the former Ada Heise, following her passing, Christmas Day at Parkview Home, Stouffville. Mrs. Fretz was in her 90th year. Surviving are two sons, Dr. Norman Fretz of Windsor and Eldon Fretz, Stouffville; five grandchildren, Eric, Susan, Robert, Rebecca and Janet; one brother, Edgar in California and a sister, Velma in Kansas. Interment was at Heise Hill Cemetery.

To Bolton

Mr. and Mrs. Tat Aida, Hawthorne Avenue, Stouffville, visited with their son and daughter-in-law, Ben and Diane Aida and family, Bolton, on the holiday weekend.

Holiday Guests

Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houck, Maytree Avenue, Stouffville were - John and Shirley Houck, Tim, Kimberley and Kerri of Aurora; John and Marilyn Dors, Eileen, Christine and Kevin of Scarborough; Dan and Donna Thornhill with daughter and son-in-law Patti and Ron Sheets from Indiana and Edna Myers of Stouffville.

Guest Soloist

Mrs. Marie Alexander will be the guest soloist at the 7 p.m. service, Jan. 10 in the Stouffville Missionary Church.

Kind Gesture

The kindest gesture I've ever seen", is the way Gertrude Miller of Elm Street St. Citizens' Apartment described a pleasant incident last week. Mrs. Miller answered a knock at her door and there stood Santa Claus and several young boys all dressed up as elves. Each of the lads gave her a small present and Santa also pulled a gift out of his pack. A former resident on Jermain Street in Markham, Mrs. Miller had been living at Sutton before coming to Stouffville in September to be closer to her family.

Family Gathering

The home of Glenn and Pat Byer and family, Tenth Line South was the scene of a pleasant gathering, Christmas Day. Present were - Mr and Mrs. Fred Byer, Maytree Ave., Stouffville; Edna Ratcliff and family, Westlawn Crescent, Stouffville; Bruce and Joyce McDowell and family, Monkton near Listowel; Doug and Muriel Hoover and family, 18th Avenue, Markham and Bob and Leila Layton and family of Burlington.

Family Reunion

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Doner enjoyed a reunion, Dec. 26 in the Friendship Room at Parkview Home, Stouffville. On Christmas morning, Mr. and Mrs. Doner, Baker Avenue, visited with their son and daughter-in-law, Barry and Laurie Doner at Oshawa. Daughter Sharon accompanied them.

Joyous Christmas

Bill and Marjorie Duxbury, Glad Park Avenue, Stouffville, had all members of their family home for Christmas including Anne and Jim Payne and daughters of Bloomington; son Bob from Willowdale; Lynne and her fiance, Malcolm Smith of London and Elaine and her fiance, Hans Reichenbach of Clarkson.

A merry Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jarvis, Baker Avenue, Stouffville, enjoyed a merry Christmas Day at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Les and Jean Jarvis and family, RR 2, Markham. Also present was their daughter and son-in-law, Doreen and Gary Alexander and family, Pomander Road, Unionville.

Guest Speaker

The congregation of Stouffville Baptist Church will have as their guest speaker, Jan. 3, Stu Lang of the Edmonton Eskimos. He will attend both services at 10:45 a.m. and 6:50 p.m. This highly regarded football star is a member of "Athletes in Action".

'Warmth' of Family

Having the family all home made for a 'warm' Christmas at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Doug Brodie, Glad Park Avenue, Stouffville. Present were daughters Jane and Marion and sons Jim and Paul. Dr. Brodie's mother, Mrs. Ethel Brodie made the celebration complete. Mrs. Brodie Sr. lives in Toronto.

To Sunderland

Bob and Sheila McNeil, Tim, Danny and Cindy, Edward Street, Stouffville, visited on Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Brad Gilbert and family, formerly of Stouffville and now living at Sunderland.

From University

Mr. and Mrs. John Lang, Manitoba Street, Stouffville, were pleased to have daughter Mary home for the Christmas holidays from the University of Guelph and son Doug home from Wilfred Laurier University in Waterloo.

A busy weekend

It was a busy Christmas weekend for Mac and Fern Keith, RR 1, Unionville. They travelled to Minesing to spend the day with Mac's sister and brother-in-law Muriel and Mac Sewers. They were accompanied by Macs aunt, Jean Keith of Barrie. On Monday, they attended the Keith family reunion in the Teeswater Community Hall with about 65 present. They also enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Graham at Lucknow and stayed over-night with Mac's brother, David.

From Vancouver

Rev. and Mrs. Ted Green, Maytree Avenue, Stouffville, were pleased to welcome friends Joyce and Michael Milligan of Vancouver, B.C., Thursday afternoon. Christmas weekend visitors included Rev. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Green of Waterdown and his brother and sister-in-law, Norman and Marg Green of Guildwood, Scarborough.

Pleasant Gathering

The home of Bob and Betty Stevens and family, Millard Street, Stouffville, hosted a pleasant gathering, Christmas Day. Present was Betty's grandmother, Mrs. Bert Lickorish, Stouffville; her mother, Mrs. Mabel Lee of Unionville; her aunt and uncle, Bea and Lloyd Jennings and family, Stouffville; her sister, Heather Burnett and family, Stouffville; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jeans and family, Ramona Blvd., Markham and Bob's father, Mr. Wm. Stevens of Scarborough.

A Wonderful Day

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Betz, William Street, Stouffville, enjoyed Christmas Day at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Keith and Lynda Betz and family, Main Street West and with their daughter and son-in-law, Sheila and Tom Smith and family, Conc. 6, Uxbridge. Joining them for the day was their daughter and grandson, Marie and Jason Maskery of Stouffville.

At Markham

Duncan and Harvey Spang, RR 3, Claremont, enjoyed dinner, Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Bell, Sir Galahad Pl., Markham.

From Windsor

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mitchinson, Stuart Street, Stouffville, entertained Michael's sister and brother-in-law, Wendy and Rex Lingwood from Windsor. Early in the new year, Wendy and Rex are travelling 'down under' to Australia. Also visiting here were Bill and Dorothy Dinnie and Michael's mother, Mrs. Frances Mitchinson.

Family Came Home

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Forsyth, Hwy. 47, were pleased to have their family home on Christmas Day including Elaine and Ron Stover, Suzanne, Scott and Christopher of Markham; Debbie and Wayne Forsyth, Leandre and Lisa of Stouffville and Gordon Wyatt also of Stouffville.

Passes Suddenly

Sympathy of the town is extended to Anita Waite, Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville, in the sudden passing of her mother, Eileen Jasinias, Stuart Street, Stouffville, Dec. 23. Service was held from the O'Neill Chapel, Saturday with interment, Stouffville Cemetery.

Florida Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Murfitt, High Point Drive, Ballantrae, are spending Christmas week in Florida accompanied by children Simon, Guy and Samantha.

Daughter Here

Mrs. Rose Watling, Glengall Lane, Stouffville, was pleased to have her daughter here on Christmas Eve. Mrs. Jessie McKinnon lives at Lake Simcoe. The family spent Christmas Day with Mr. George McKinnon, Scarborough.

Large Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Weber, RR 2, Stouffville, enjoyed the company of Mrs. Weber's sister and families during the holidays. Guests included - Annie and Leonard Roy and daughters Michelle and Maisie; Margaret and Brian Watanabe, Christine and Eric and Bob Hunter and sons Robert and Rickie.

From Calgary

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston of Dickson's Hill are pleased to have Alison Stow from Calgary visiting with them during the Christmas holidays.

Part-Time Position

The Home Support Services for Seniors in Stouffville is seeking someone to fill a part-time position. Hours are flexible, light household chores. Applicants must have a genuine interest in senior citizens. The location is 50 Main Street West and the number to call is 640-6554 between 9 a.m. and 12 noon.

To St. Mary's

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kirby, Elm Road, Stouffville, accompanied by children Maura and Greg, spent Christmas with Paul's brother, Mr. Earl Kirby at St. Mary's, Ont.

Honored Guest

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Wray, Colleen and Christine, Main Street East, Stouffville, were pleased to have a great aunt, Mrs. Liz Davis of Scarborough spend Christmas Day at their home. Mrs. Davis is 88.

That Time Again

The initial practice for Music Mania '82 will be held on Wed., Jan. 6 at 8 p.m., in the auditorium of Summitview School. An open invitation is extended to all new residents in town. Interested persons may obtain additional information by contacting Lavanna Sanders at 640-2014.

Home for Christmas

John Wilson, owner-operator of the Stouffville Bowling Centre, was released from Scarborough Centenary Hospital last Thursday so he could be home for Christmas. He was taken ill, Dec. 21 at the alleys and an ambulance was called.

With Neighbors

Mrs. Hilda Wright, RR 2, Stouffville, spent Christmas with longtime friends and neighbors, Jim and Rose Longrigg.

House ransacked

The home of Albert Webster at R.R. 2, Gormley was entered during the night of Dec. 19 and almost every room ransacked. Jewellery, cash, credit cards and stereo equipment were stolen, the value of which is undetermined.

There will be more than just...

"a local restaurant", said the speaker, "it will be an attraction across the region". The owner was identified as Mark Patteson.

Kinsmen Draw

A Kinsmen Club Draw, held Dec. 19 in the Stouffville Area, resulted in four cash prize winners: First ($100) - Robert Brooks, Stouffville; second ($70) - Louise Beaulieu, Barrie; third ($50) - Ray Taylor, Scarborough and fourth ($30) - Bob LeMotte, Stouffville.

Double Delight

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brillinger, Parkview Apartments, Stouffville, visited on Christmas Eve with their daughter and son-in-law, Dorothy and Eldon Yake and family, Goodwood, and Christmas Day with Marilyn and Jim Newton, Main Street, Stouffville.

Family Reunion

Fifty-four members of the Joseph Reesor family, gathered Saturday afternoon and evening in the Community Hall at Victoria Square.

Musical Event

A sacred music service, New Year's Eve, will be held at Heise Hill Brethern in Christ Church, Woodbine Avenue, south of Gormley, beginning at 9 p.m. and extending through to midnight. Groups will include The Wright Family Singers, The Sellwoods and The Viscounts.

Festival of Lights

Christ Church (Anglican), Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville, will hold its annual Festival of Lights, Sunday, Jan. 3 at 7 p.m. This spectacular service traces the history of Christianity using candles as symbols.

Police Male Chorus

Senior citizens of Stouffville and area should circle the date of Tues., Jan. 12. A male chorus, comprising members of the Metropolitan Toronto Police Association, will visit the Silver Jubilee Club, Main and Market Streets. Time of this event is 7:30 p.m.

Sackful of Joy

Santa Claus and three helpers brought joy and happiness to the residents of Testa Villa Apartments, Albert Street South, Thursday. Said one lady: "Such expressions of goodwill should not pass without a word of appreciation".

Sings in Messiah

Beverly Bell, formerly of RR 3, Claremont and now living at 32 Sir Galahad Pl., Markham, sang with the Mendelsohn Choir and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra in the recent two-night performance of The Messiah at Massey Hall, Toronto.

Outdoor displays

Christmas lights were very beautiful in the village this year with special mention going to the Cole's, the Morden's and the Beach's.

Guests with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones

Christmas Day were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McTaggart and family and Mildred McTaggart; Mr. and Mrs. Hoelke and Ron Hoelke, Victoria, British Columbia, and Mrs. Schultz of Oshawa. Guests with Mildred adding one more.

"I wish you luck," he said. Dr. Bill Murphy, a home-owner immediately east of Freeland Lane, expressed concern over noise, especially after midnight. He also wondered if the single-lane access to the site would be adequate to handle traffic.

Flanagan claimed

no problem since the restaurant isn't "a pub". As for the lane, he felt motorists should be able to get in and out without difficulty.

A surprise gift for Christmas

Nine year old Maura Kirby of 472 Elm Road, Stouffville, received an unexpected gift for Christmas — a giant Teddy Bear from Widdifield Drugs in the Stouffville Plaza. Maura was the grand prize winner in a draw sponsored by Widdifield's and held Dec. 21. Jim Holt

Thrilled by cantata

By Mildred McTaggart

GREENWOOD — The Christmas cantata, presented by the Greenwood choir, Dec. 20, was an event to be remembered. Everyone in the congregation expressed appreciation of this inspiring performance. Those present were also pleased to hear Rosalie Brooks playing her trumpet; flutist Jamie Thompson; Kevin Seymour on the bassoon and Pierre LaCasse at the piano.

Outdoor displays of Christmas lights were very beautiful in the village this year with special mention going to the Cole's, the Morden's and the Beach's.

Betty and Len Weatherston, Nelson and Violet Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean, William Brown, Alfred and Barbara Pegg were among the guests invited to the Christmas dinner party at the Claremont Conservation Field Centre, Friday evening, December 18.

Mrs. Raye Griffin

Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin, Brechin, visited with relatives in Hamburg, New York, Dec. 19 and 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Brooks and family enjoyed dinner Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. William Pegg of Stouffville.

Guests with Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean Christmas Day were Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLean, Diane and Brian of Scarborough; Mrs. Cameron McLean and Mrs. Sam Morrow of Toronto.

Jack Frew and Scott

Toronto, spent Christmas Day with Mrs. Margaret Frew, Paddock Road.

Guests with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones, Greenwood, Christmas Day were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McTaggart and family and Mildred McTaggart; Mr. and Mrs. Hoelke and Ron Hoelke, Victoria, British Columbia, and Mrs. Schultz of Oshawa.

Guests with Mildred adding one more. "I wish you luck," he said. Dr. Bill Murphy, a home-owner immediately east of Freeland Lane, expressed concern over noise, especially after midnight. He also wondered if the single-lane access to the site would be adequate to handle traffic.

Flanagan claimed

no problem since the restaurant isn't "a pub". As for the lane, he felt motorists should be able to get in and out without difficulty.

NEW YEAR'S GOSPEL CONCERT
AT
HEISE HILL CHURCH
DEC. 31, 9 P.M.

FEATURING:
THE SELLWOODS
THE VISCOUNTS
THE WRIGHT SINGERS

PLAN NOW TO JOIN US!

Les Leonard

Devoted family man

STOUFFVILLE — On Dec. 25, Leslie Leonard passed away at his home on South Street, Stouffville.

News of his death was received with much sadness by members of his family and many friends, both in Stouffville and in the Stayner area where he was well known.

Mr. Leonard was a devoted family man, taking much time and pride in the raising of his children. He was also a good neighbor. By profession, he was a plumber and an electrician.

Les Leonard was a faithful member in the congregation of the Stouffville Missionary Church and highly respected for his testimony.

He is survived by wife Norma; three sons, Kenneth of Stouffville, Larry of Callender, Kevin of Markham; one daughter, Dianne at home; three grandchildren; his father, Wesley of Stayner; two sisters, Norma of Guelph, Vera of Feversham and two brothers, Laverne of Toronto and Wallace in Burlington.

Service was held Monday afternoon from the Missionary Church with Rev. Jim Cubine in charge. Rev. John Hamilton, now of Kitchener, brought the message. Interment was made at the Stouffville Cemetery.

Pall-bearers were nephews Jim Williams Jr., Stephen Priddle, Melville Leonard, Lowell Wideman, Calvin Knights and Eldon Wideman.

NOTICE

BY-LAW NO. 81-67

OF

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF UXBRIDGE

Being a By-law to amend Property Standards By-law No. 78-66.

BE IT ENACTED, and it is hereby enacted as a By-law of the Corporation of the Township of Uxbridge by the Council thereof as follows:

1. That Section 3 of Part 4 of By-law 78-66 be amended by adding thereto the following new subsection: 4.3(15) Fire Detection Equipment

- (a) For the purpose of the interpretation of this subsection, (i) "Combustion Detector" shall mean a products of combustion detector (including the Single Station Alarm Type) which has been approved by Underwriter's Laboratories of Canada (U.L.C.) (ii) "Products of Combustion Detector" shall mean a type of detector for the detection of the presence of one or more of the products of combustion of a fire based on the ionization principle, resistance bridge method or cloud chamber effect, and automatically initiating a signal indicating this condition.
- (b) Every rented dwelling unit and every rooming unit shall be provided with at least one Combustion Detector and such Combustion Detector shall be installed by the property owner and shall at all times be maintained in good working condition.
- (c) The Combustion Detector shall be installed in the following areas of the rented dwelling units and rooming units:
 - (i) Rented Dwelling Unit
 - In the ceiling of the hallway or corridor leading to the bedrooms in such location as to be audible within all bedrooms when the bedroom doors are closed.
 - (ii) Rooming Unit
 - Where the rooming unit consists of only one room then the said Combustion Detector shall be installed in the ceiling of such room. Where the room unit consists of more than one room then the Combustion Detector shall be installed in the ceiling in the room or hallway immediately adjoining the bedroom and in such location as to be audible within the bedroom when the bedroom door is closed.
- (d) The Combustion Detector shall be:
 - (i) Equipped with audible or visual indication that it is in operating condition; and
 - (ii) If connected to the building's electrical supply, be permanently mounted to a standard electrical outlet or junction box on the ceiling to a circuit without a disconnect switch or interconnected with any wall outlet.
- (e) The various provisions of Subsection 10 as set forth shall come into effect on the 1st day of January, 1982.

BY-LAW READ A FIRST AND SECOND TIME THIS 26th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1981.
W.E. Taylor Mayor
BY-LAW READ A THIRD TIME, AND FINALLY PASSED THIS 26th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1981
W.E. Taylor Mayor
COMBUSTION DETECTORS TO BE INSTALLED AND INSPECTED BY THE TOWNSHIP OF UXBRIDGE BUILDING DEPARTMENT, PRIOR TO JANUARY 31, 1982.
FOR FURTHER DETAILS REGARDING INSTALLATIONS AND INSPECTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT THE BUILDING DEPARTMENT, 20 BASCOM STREET, UXBRIDGE, TELEPHONE 852-3301 OR 640-1711.
W.E. Taylor, A.M.C.T., Clerk.