Serious fire

By Rosemary Timms
CLAREMONT — A Claremont family was made homeless, Jan. 6, when fire destroyed the interior of their residence causing an estimated $60,000 damage. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clayton, daughter Christine and a niece were all living there at the time. A son Brian resides in Ajax. Firefighters from Claremont, Brougham and Pickering were summoned to the scene. A faulty furnace is blamed. The property was the home of the late Charles Cooper. Mr. Clayton had recently spent considerable money on renovations. Until repairs can be completed, the Claytons will reside in a trailer at the rear of the property.

Claremont correspondent, Rosemary Timms, will enter hospital for surgery at the end of this month and later enjoy a vacation in St. Lucia. Karen Marks has agreed to write the community news for The Tribune in Mrs. Timms' absence.

Residents here were sorry to hear of the passing of Ralph Jones, Jan. 7 in Port Perry Hospital.

The congregation of Claremont Baptist Church will hold its annual meeting, Jan. 24 at 7 p.m.

The Baptist Women's Mission Circle will meet Jan. 14 at 1:30 p.m., in the home of Jean Drake.

The Claremont Women's Institute will meet Jan. 19 at the home of Mrs. Jack Morgan. Time of the gathering is 1:30 p.m. The roll call is "Useful Cooking Hints".

Past papers now on film

The Old Year, replete with festive excess, wallowed out like a pregnant hippopotamus at the dawn of 1982. On the Chinese calendar this is the Year of the Dog but, back in the Library luncheon room it's, once again, the Year of the Diet. With the Bakery declared off limits and the frig-wired shut, we are facing the grim reality that while fat, on food, settles at the top, on us, it settles on the bottom.

Tribune on Film

An exciting Library project, the microfilming of past editions of The Tribune, was completed this month. We consider this a major boost to our reference material and an important step in preserving community history, projected through the pages of the local press. The filmed newspapers date back to 1888 and the entire collection is available for use in the Library. The reels can be viewed (or prints made of specific articles) on our microfilm copier.

Book Donation

Since its inception the Whitchurch-Stouffville Recycling Group has often run informative and creative workshops for kids, in conjunction with our Library. Once again we're the beneficiary of its recycling program. A $500 donation, derived through the sale of collected materials, has been channelled our way for the purchase of books, one enjoyable end product of successful recycling. Our accolade-of-the-month goes to the diligent volunteers down at the local depot.

Children's Programs

The Library's French program for children is already in progress and the morning Story Hour resumes, Jan. 26. Registration is still open for "Introduction to music and dance", which starts Jan. 29, and for a 7-week music program, starting Feb. 3. All of the above are for preschool children.

Jan. 24 Ski Ramble

Here we go again! Wax up the skis and dig in the poles for we are about to set off on another cross-country ramble. We hope it follows in the tracks of last year's affair which we completed without losing anyone on the trail, incurring broken bones or bruised egos. Everyone who is able to slide along, no matter how ineptly, is invited to gather behind the Library at 1 p.m., Sunday Jan. 24 and meander with us over the surrounding countryside. It's surprising how beautiful it is out there in the fields, away from Stouffville's "madding crowds." Back at the Library, hot chocolate will be on tap and, let's hope, outside, cold snow will be on the ground.
