Care of cats

GORMLEY — Jim Ryan of Ryan's Boarding Kennels, R.R. 4, Stouffville, says he's received many calls from people who, on starting their cars on cold mornings, have discovered the family cat cut to pieces by the fan.

Cats, says Jim, seek the warmth of the car motor. Sometimes they're strays but often they're not.

What Mr. Ryan suggests is for each driver to rap his or her fist on the hood each morning or, better still, lift the hood and look underneath.

"This simple act could save a cat from serious injury or death and the motorist from a traumatic experience," Ryan said.

Kids only

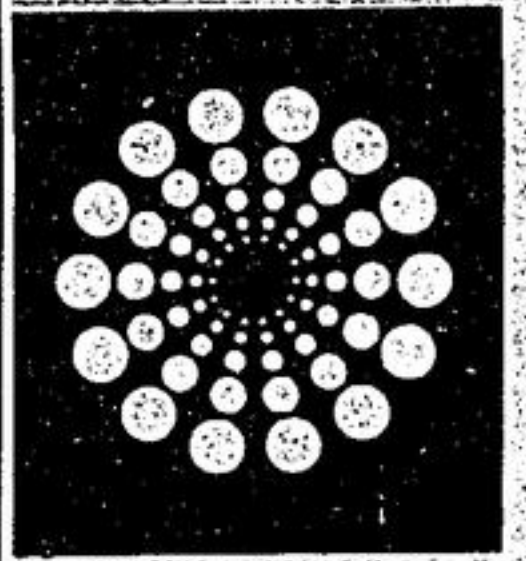

MARKHAM — The Small World Nursery School that had originally operated under the name of "Trillium", opened its doors last week at a new location on the 7th Concession (McCowan Road).

"It's lovely," says Anna Sabry, describing the farmhouse site.

The move, two miles north, was made necessary when construction work started on the huge Markville Plaza at McCowan Road and Hwy. 7.

Small World is divided into classes according to age — two to three; four to five and five to six.

The school is licenced to accommodate 65 children and is supervised by two teachers. The contact number is 640-6611.
