

Company promotion

A.C. Watson, President of Country Style Donuts Limited, has announced the appointment of Marlene Storry Nicholson, R.R. 1, Unionville, to the position of Vice-President of Real Estate and Franchising. Mrs. Nicholson, former Manager of Real Estate and Franchising and presently a Director of the Association of Canadian Franchisers, has played an integral part in the Canada wide expansion of the Country Style concept for eight years, Mr. Wilson said.

Lawyer is Q.C.

Congratulations to Gordon Ness, O'Brien Avenue, a solicitor in the firm of Button, Ness & Armstrong, on being named a Queen's Counsel for 1982.

Friendship Club

The Stouffville Friendship Club will meet Thursday (tomorrow) night in the Legion Hall at 8 p.m. Senior citizens requiring transportation are asked to call 640-2443.

Service Recognized

Bob Thompson, McCowan Road, Markham and Ellis Britton, Clarendon, were presented with long-service certificates at the annual meeting.

Editor's Post

Don Bernard, former editor of The Tribune and more recently the Associate Editor of the Aurora Banner, has been promoted to the position of Editor at the Markham Economist and Sun, succeeding John Scott, now doing public relations work with the Region of York.

First Service

Harley Winborn, formerly of Pine Orchard and now living in Toronto, is the new minister at Stouffville Baptist Church. Mr. Winborn assumes this pastorate on Sunday, Jan. 24.

Men Wanted!

There are still vacancies to fill in the mixed chorus for Music Mania '82. Persons wishing to participate (especially men), are asked to attend the next practices, Jan. 20 and Jan. 27 at 8 p.m., in the auditorium at Summitview School.

Beautiful Child

Have you noticed the photograph of the beautiful child in the window of the George Ross Camera Store on Main Street? Dozens of people have. The little girl is six month old Amanda Leitch, daughter of Joshua and Linda Leitch of Brampton and granddaughter of Orval and Agnes Leitch, R.R. 2, Stouffville.

Centre Receptionist

Glens Drewery, Tenth Line South, is the new receptionist secretary at the Family Life Centre Office, Main Street West. For the present, Mrs. Drewery will serve in this capacity only on Tuesdays.

Hockey College Draw
Adele Mabee, 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.G. Mabee, Meyer Circle, Markham, was a recent winner of a new pair of Bauer Skates in Scotia Bank's Hockey College Draw. Adele is a Grade 6 student at Reesor Park Public School.

St. Patrick's Dance

The Parent Teachers Guild is holding a "Spring Thaw Dance", Sat., Jan. 30 beginning at 8 p.m., in St. Patrick's Church, Hwy. 7 at Robinson Street, Markham. There will be hot and cold buffet and door prizes. Tickets ($20 per couple) are available by calling 294-0822.

Fitness Challenge

In connection with Celebration '82, Chairman Ged Stonehouse is hoping to re-organize the Fitness Challenge that proved so successful last year. A meeting to discuss such an event will be held on Wed., Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m., in The Regal Restaurant, Stouffville.

Widows-Widowers

The Stouffville Family Life Centre is offering a new program for widowed men and women. The first meeting is Tues., Jan. 26 at 8 p.m., in the Latcham Gallery of the Town Library. For additional information call 640-2123.

"Open House"

Cora and Allan Balsdon, 22 Franklin Street, Markham will celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary, Sat., Jan. 30. In honor of the occasion, an "open house" is planned from 2 to 4:30 p.m., in the Markham Bowling Green Clubhouse.

"Living With Teens"
Anita Waite of Stouffville is the leader of an Aurora Newmarket Family Life Centre Course entitled "Living With Teens". The series, starting Tues., Jan. 26 at 8 p.m., covers a period of eight weeks. The registration is $40. For additional information the contact number is 895-2371.

E.B.C. Chorale Coming

The Emmanuel Bible College Chorale from Kitchener, will provide the special music at the 7 p.m. service, Jan. 31 in the Stouffville Missionary Church.

Home from Hospital

Len Keeping, Main Street West, Stouffville, is home again, following a week's stay in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

Couple Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steckley, R. R. 2, Markham, were honored Sunday at a 40th wedding anniversary "open house" held in The Silver Jubilee Club, Stouffville. Close to 120 friends and relatives attended including daughter Shirley of Toronto and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Steckley of Windsor. Another daughter, Mrs. Victor Brown of Bishop Mills, was unable to be present.

Fined $150

A 21 year old Stouffville man was fined $150 following a guilty plea on a charge of theft when he appeared before Judge F.D. White in Newmarket Court. Dale Knabb was convicted of stealing $169 worth of stereo equipment from Stouffville Sound and Music, Main Street in December.

Joins LePage Staff

Lols Wideman, formerly of The Tribune's ad staff, has joined the firm of A. E. LePage Real Estate Limited, with office quarters at 225 Yonge Street South, Aurora.

Tradition alive

Bryan Armstrong of The Tribune's advertising staff, has been elected second vice-president of the Markham and East York Agricultural Society. The annual meeting was held Jan. 13. Bryan's grandfather, the late Robt. P. Armstrong was president of Markham Fair in 1933, 1934 and 1935.

Tribunes for Sale

Copies of The Tribune can now be purchased at Farmer Jack's on Hwy. 47, east of Ringwood.

Band Concert

Patti Richards and Susan Thomas, students attending Wilfred Laurier University, Waterloo, participated in a band concert, Friday evening, in the W.L.U. Theatre Auditorium. On Sunday morning, Patti rendered a lovely trumpet solo at the service in the Stouffville United Church.

Skating Party

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Historical Society is holding a family skating party, Fri., Jan. 29 at the open-air rink, rear of the Town Museum at Vandorf. Refreshments available. Starting time - 7 p.m. For additional information call 727-8954.

Lemonville United Church
Lovely wedding

LEMONVILLE — Laura Kathleen Lloyd and James Robert Schellenberger were married Sept. 19, 1981 at Lemonville United Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lloyd, R.R. 4, Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schellenberger, R. R. 2, Mitchell. Rev. Wayne Wardell performed the ceremony. The organist was Clarian Baker of Stouffville and the soloist, Janice Wurdell of Stratford.

The bride was lovely in a wedding gown worn previously by her mother. It featured appliques of lace on net over white bridal satin. Mother-of-pearl sequins adorned the sculptured yoke which was enhanced with appliques of lace. She carried a cascade of pink roses, baby's breath and ivy.

Debbie Lloyd, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bride's sister, Vicki Lloyd and Cathy Wood were bridesmaids.

The bride's attendants wore polyester crepe gowns complimented by French lace across the shoulders and French lace

Laura Kathleen Lloyd and James Robert Schellenberger were married, Sept. 19, 1981 in Lemonville United Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lloyd, R.R. 4, Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schellenberger, R.R. 2, Mitchell, Ont.

short sleeves. Their gowns were of bridal pink, dusty rose and burgundy respectively and each carried an arm bouquet of pink and white gladioli.

The best man was Roy Docking of Baden. Kevin Brown of Waterloo, cousin of the groom, and Rick Middleton of Aurora were ushers.

Following the reception held at the Whitchurch Centennial Centre, the bride and groom left on a honeymoon to Sault Ste. Marie and a trip through the Agawa Canyon. The happy couple are now residing at R.R. 3, Stratford.

New Program

For widowed men-women

STOUFFVILLE — The Stouffville Family Life Centre initiated the very successful "Moms and Tots' Drop-In Centre" that now meets twice weekly in the United Church and the Single Parents' Association that's gaining new members every month.

Now, the executive is turning its attention towards the needs of widowed men and women in the community.

The first meeting is planned for Tues., Jan.

26 at 8 p.m., in Latcham Gallery of the Public Library.

"We want to find out if such an organization is needed," Marion Boardway told The Tribune. "The only way to find out is to ask," she said.

The Family Life Centre, she explained, will help get the group going after which they'll become self-supporting.

Anyone wishing additional information on this program can call 640-2123.

An audio-visual worship service

STOUFFVILLE — On Sunday, Jan. 24 at 7 p.m., Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville, Sunset Boulevard, will host a unique event.

Creative Sound & Light Incorporated will present an audio-visual program as an opportunity for worship.

In C.L.S. ministry, the spoken word is reinforced by inspired music from classical through traditional and contemporary sources, and projected through multi-screen images, showing the wonders of God's creation.

A three-screen, six-projector system is used with full stereo sound.

The program will feature three shows entitled "Be Still And Know That I Am God"; "Slow Me Down Lord" and "The Joy Of The Lord Is Your Strength".

Creative Sound & Light has shared its ministry with close to 10,000 people. This is an event for the entire family — Jan. 24 at 7 p.m., Christ Church, Stouffville.

In Hospital

Dorothy Middleton, Winlane Apartments, Stouffville and formerly of Clarendon, recently underwent surgery in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

From University

Dina Alexis, O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville, was a recent weekend visitor with her parents. Dina is enrolled at Brock University, St. Catharines.

Peter Jackson Extra Light

LET THERE BE LIGHT
EXTRA LIGHT PETER JACKSON

Warning: Health and Welfare Canada advises that danger to health increases with amount smoked — avoid inhaling.
Average per cigarette: King Size and Regular: 7mg "tar" 0.7mg nicotine.