Mr and Mrs Jack Snowball Recall 50 years

MARKHAM — It was Feb. 17, 1932 that Jack Snowball and Margaret Paterson were married by Dr. W. H. Fuller in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church manse. That was fifty years ago.

On Saturday afternoon, this and other pleasant memories were recalled. The occasion was an 'open house' in honor of their Golden Wedding anniversary.

Since their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Snowball have continued to live in Markham including the last 34 years at 335 Main Street North. They have one daughter, Margaret-Jean (Mrs. Bruce Middleton) of Mansfield near Alliston and two grandchildren, Wayne and Laurie.

Mr. Snowball has two brothers, Harold of Unionville who served as his best man and Ernest, a resident of Unionville. Mrs. Snowball has three sisters, Cora Balsdon, Isabel Raymer and Annie Spring and three brothers, Gilbert, Allan and Earl Paterson, all of Markham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snowball, Main Street North, Markham, were honored, Saturday afternoon at an 'open house' in the Christian Education Centre of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The occasion was their 50th wedding anniversary.

The couple vividly recall that on returning from their honeymoon, they were 'treated' to a shivaree and later an oyster supper at the home of Reub and Alma Meyer. It was fitting then that Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, long-time friends and neighbors, were able to attend Saturday's celebration.
