'Open House' Saturday

On Saturday, March 20, George and Connie Yake will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. To mark the occasion, an "open house" will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yake, R.R. 4, Stouffville from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

46th Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pennock, Aurora, celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary with an 'open house' Sunday. Among the many friends in attendance were Charles and Inna Nolan and Ken and Reta Laushway of Stouffville. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan 'stood up' with Mr. and Mrs. Pennock at the ceremony in the United Church parsonage forty years ago. Jack and Edna (Burkitt) are well-known in Stouffville with associations here close to a half-century ago. Jack, still a barber in Aurora, worked with the late Bob Snowball in Stouffville and later at the Queen's Hotel in Unionville.

"In His Blood"
"I still get up in the middle of the night to see if it's snowing," commented Ernest 'Sandy' Davis, long-time Whitchurch Township Road Superintendent, on stopping in at The Tribune Office to renew his subscription. Sandy Davis, now retired, remained on staff for a time following the amalgamation of the two municipalities. He was highly respected by all employees within the department, including his successor, Ron Gibson.

A Close Call
Nine year old Jody Turner, Palmwood Gate, Stouffville, had a close call, last week, when he ran into the side of a car on Main Street and the rear wheel passed over both feet. He was en route to Orchard Park School at the time. While no bones were broken his feet were badly bruised. He returned to class on Friday.

Like Old Times
The Tribune's editor was pleased to receive a call, Thursday, from Mrs. Russell Pike, Kenilworth Avenue, Toronto. Mrs. Pike, now in her 80's, is the former Mary Pipher, daughter of Frank and Sarah (Raymer) Pipher, R.R. 2, Markham. Her husband, an ordained minister, passed away in 1968. Mrs. Pike attended the recent Pike family reunion at First Alliance Church, Scarborough.

Planning Meeting
The town's recently organized 'Widowed Group' will hold a planning meeting, Tuesday, March 30 at the Family Life Centre Office (rear of the Credit Union Building), at 8 p.m.

Spring On Way
Spring is obviously just around the corner. John Kleinedeters, 80 Stuart Street, Stouffville, saw a robin on his front lawn, Monday morning.

Guest speaker

The Very Reverend Doctor Kenneth G. McMillan, General Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service in Stouffville United Church. Dr. McMillan has held his present position since 1957. In June 1979, he was elected Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada for a one-year term. Under his leadership, the Canadian Bible Society is one of the most prominent organizations of its kind in the world.

School Concert

The well-known Daniel Band will provide the music for a High School concert, Friday evening (March 19) beginning at 8 p.m. Admission is $3 per person.

Nursery Registration
An 'open house' and registration will be held at the Mother Goose Nursery School, Tenth Line South, Tues., March 30 from 7 to 9 p.m. This is for the 1982-83 school year. Children are welcome to accompany their parents, instructor Pat Byer told The Tribune.

Cheque Presentation
The Heart Foundation (Stouffville Chapter) is holding a coffee party, Thursday morning (March 18), beginning at 10 a.m., in the United Church. A campaign cheque will be presented. All canvassers and other interested persons are welcome.

Married 40 Years
Dr. and Mrs. W.S. Whitcombe, R.R. 3, Clarendon, will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary with an 'open house', Sat., March 20 from 2 to 5 p.m., at Wishing Well Acres Baptist Church, Sheppard Avenue, east of Pharmacy. The event is being organized by their family at a church founded by Dr. Whitcombe and where he served as the congregation's pastor 27 years ago.

Good Friday Service
A Good Friday Service will be held in the Memorial Christian Church, 185 Main Street East, Stouffville at 10:30 a.m. Guest speaker will be Rev. Dr. Douglas C. Percy, long-time member of the Conference of Congregational Christian Churches of Ontario and missionary statesman. Special music will be provided by Donna Wood and the Memorial Christian Church choir.

Messiah College

Mark Wideman, son of Ray and Lois Wideman, R.R. 1, Unionville, has enrolled at Messiah College in Grantham, Pennsylvania, ten miles south west of Harrisburg. Mark is a graduate of Niagara Christian College, Fort Erie.

Singles Dance
The Stouffville Singles' Association will attend a dance at Crosby Memorial Arena, Unionville, Friday evening (March 19). Persons wishing transportation are asked to meet at the Bank of Montreal parking lot on Westlawn Crescent.

Visits Mother
Bill and Edna Nigh of South River, Ont., called on his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Nigh at Parkview Home, Friday. While in the area, they stayed at their son's home at Keswick. Bill took part in a curling bonspiel at Sutton on the weekend.

Magic Festival
A Magic Festival, unlike anything Stouffville has ever seen before, will be held at various locations in town, May 7, 8, and 9. The event is being sponsored by the Public Library.

Trip or Cash
Donna (Mrs. Steve) Wideman of Clarendon was the winner of the Lions-sponsored trip to The Bahamas (or its value in cash), in a draw Friday at Cedar Beach Hall, Musselman's Lake. Ed. McAloney, the Club's immediate past-president, sold Donna the ticket.

Much Improved
David Shaw, formerly of Stouffville and now residing in Thornhill, was a patient in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. David is a member of Stouffville Legion Branch 459 and his absence has been missed.

Spaghetti dinner raises $716 for Quebec City trip

Orchard Park School's Grade 7 class, with the assistance of teachers and parents, held a successful spaghetti dinner, Friday evening in the Stouffville Legion Hall. Proceeds amounting to $716 will help subsidize a class trip to Quebec City in May. Chief organizer of the event was Maris Anderson (left), Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville. Student waitress for a night was daughter Jane. Jim Thomas

Visits parents

Willis Wideman of R.R. 1, Gowansville, Ont., visited on Friday with his father, Willis Wideman Sr., in Parkview Home and his mother on Elm Road in Stouffville. While at Parkview, he also visited with his uncle, Mr. Jacob Wideman.

To Honor Couple
Sally Noble and Brent Brethour will be honored at a miscellaneous shower, Monday, March 29 at 7:30 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall of the Stouffville Missionary Church. Dianne and Vana Leonard and Bonnie Brown are in charge.

Widowed Group
The Widowed Group, sponsored by the Stouffville Family Life Centre will enjoy a "night on the town", Wed., March 24 when they visit a local restaurant for dinner. For additional information call 640-2123 or 640-2804.

Fiftieth Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. John Keeler, Park Drive North, Stouffville, will mark their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, March 21. To celebrate the occasion, an 'open house' is planned for the United Church from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

Ninetieth Birthday
On the occasion of his 90th birthday, Jacob Wideman of Parkview Home and formerly of Conc. 5, Whitchurch, was honored at a gathering of family members and friends, Feb. 28 in the Friendship Room at Parkview. Mr. Wideman has two sons, Harvey, R.R. 4, Stouffville; Carl at Hanover, Ont., and one daughter, Margaret, also of Stouffville, R.R. 4.

Welcomed visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sproxtun, Elm Road, Stouffville, enjoyed a 'visit' from their great-granddaughter, Harmony Elizabeth and her parents, Jim and Karen Sproxtun of Markham. Harmony Elizabeth was born March 11, weighing 8 lbs., 11 ounces.

Plays at Casa Loma

Gormley's David Nelson will be featured on the beautiful Shea's organ at Casa Loma, Monday, May 17. The event is part of an on-going program sponsored by the Greater Toronto Kinsmen Clubs. Tickets for the show are available at Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville where David is the organist.

To Be Married
Wayne Feasby and Nancy Auld are being married Sat., May 1. Wayne is the Town's 1981-82 "Citizen of the Year".

A 50's Dance
The Ballantrae Group Committee of the Scouts and Cubs is holding a 50's dance, Sat., March 27 at the Whitchurch Centennial Centre. For information and tickets call 640-5866 or 888-1718.

Chief Engineer
Remember Doug Moore? Those who followed hockey in Stouffville back in the Junior days of the mid-40's will. Doug was a first-string goaltender for the team 'way back then'. Now he's the Chief Engineer at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens but still lives in Richmond Hill.

Successful Bazaar
The St. Patrick's bazaar and tea, sponsored by the Silver Jubilee Club, Saturday, was very successful with proceeds exceeding $900. The executive and committee wish to thank all those who assisted with this annual event.

Foot Clinic
Senior citizens are reminded of another Foot Clinic, Thurs., March 25 at the Silver Jubilee Club. Interested persons should call 640-5591.

Lost Heir Tournery
A Lost Heir Tournament will be held at the Silver Jubilee Club, Wed., March 24 beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Friendship Club
The Friendship Club will meet Thursday evening (March 18) in the Legion Hall, Ninth Line North, Stouffville at 8 p.m. All senior citizens are welcome. Those requiring transportation are asked to call 640-2443.

Breaks Hip
On Saturday afternoon, Bert and Edna Ellam, formerly of Preston's Lake and now residing in Scarborough, attended the Silver Jubilee Club bazaar. Later, they stopped in at the A & P to purchase a few groceries. In the parking lot, Mrs. Ellam suffered a fall, breaking her hip. Fortunately, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Elson of Elm Road, Stouffville were close by and went immediately to Mrs. Ellam's aid. They waited with the couple until the ambulance arrived, then drove Mr. Ellam's car and their own to Scarborough Centenary Hospital. There, they remained in the waiting room more than two hours until after the operation was over. The most rewarding thing about this story is that, prior to the incident, the Elson's and the Ellam's had never met. Such assistance is commonly referred to as "service above and beyond the call of duty".
