

Game four Friday

Bantam series deadlocked

STOUFFVILLE — The Edwards Murphy Bantam A's played their own style of hockey; fast skating and constant forechecking, to defeat Huntsville 6-4 in the second game of their semi-final series at the arena on Saturday evening.

three players in front of the Huntsville net. Burrows scored with a shot along the ice, which seemed to be the only way to beat the sharp Huntsville goalie. Huntsville tied the score seconds before the teams went off the ice.

Fockler, who controlled the play in the final minutes, Huntsville were unable to mount an effective attack.

Tonight, March 24, is the third game of the series, at Huntsville at 7:30 p.m. Next home game is this Friday, March 26, at 8:00 p.m. Fans should plan to arrive early for this one as the last home game was packed before a packed house.

Soccer news

By Alfons Rubbens
STOUFFVILLE — The formation of two senior soccer teams is becoming a distinct possibility; several new players turned up for the senior workout at SDSS on Sunday.

No doubt, now that spring is officially here there are many who are thinking summer sports. If so, then I would like to point out that soccer registrations are still being accepted at the Stouffville Hobbycraft and Toy Centre, Success Square; with the provision that all registrations are subject to the formation of a team before the league deadline.

sports Player nets perfect score

STOUFFVILLE — Tuesday, March 9, saw the balls bouncing in the gym at SDSS as the first annual foul-shooting contest was held. Three teachers and 75 students entered, divided into players and non-players. Out of a total of 25 possible baskets, the winners were chosen from the division with the most number of points.

20 pts.; 2nd. Murray Giffen 17 pts. Girls - basketball players. 1st. Sharon Dykstra 18 pts.; 2nd. Jennifer Keith 17 pts.

Tournament champs

STOUFFVILLE — The Steelers atom hockey team visited Niagara Falls last week-end, going on to Port Colbourne where they won the 'A' championship title in the Golden Puck Tournament.

he rapped in Aaron McWilliams rebound, Craig Stronach made it 2-0, on a play by Brad MacDonald and Brad Tiley, before their opponents got on the board in the final frame. Danny Larmer's 'empty net' goal ensured the win.

Wainfleet opened the scoring, with the Steelers replying early in the second period when Kevin Blacktopp slipped in Jamie Campbell's pass from behind the net. Minutes later, Chris Taylor popped in Brad Tiley's rebound to give them the lead. A two goal cushion by Tiley made things safe until Wainfleet put on the pressure and closed the gap 3-2. With less than two minutes left to play, Keith Pietter tallied a timely marker from McWilliams and Stronach to take the title. As substitute goalie Kevin Francis did a super job.

defensive performance and excellent rebounding. The junior All-Star squad went down 49-41. Dave Connell, Phys. Ed. department head, sent two of this year's senior squad to represent SDSS in the senior game. They were: guard Claude Maillet (for the second straight year), and Ross Dube. Although the Southerners were again victorious; this time 66-53, the Stouffville duo acquitted themselves well. Ross Dube got his act together in the second half and contributed six points and several rebounds to the Northern cause. Claude Maillet played a strong game as ball-handler and added most points (10) for his team.

The Midget game was a close, exciting affair as the powerful Southerners threatened to swamp their opponents. However, with Dave Elliot of SDSS scored six points on three of four shots, and also played a strong defensive game. Coaching the
