

Late Mary Cowie

A long life

STOUFFVILLE — Canon H.L. Puxley conducted the service, Thursday, from the O'Neill Funeral Chapel, Stouffville, for Mrs. William Cowie following her passing, April 12 at Parkview Home. She was 95.

Mrs. Cowie, the former Mary Graham, was born at Saintfield, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Nesbitt) Graham. While she was quite young, her parents moved to the 8th Conc. of Pickering. Later, following her marriage, she and her husband farmed on Conc. 7, Pickering and then moved to Claremont Village. Mr. Cowie died in 1946.

Mary Cowie was a member in the congregation of Claremont United Church and the Women's Institute. She received great satisfaction from working in her vegetable and flower garden.

Surviving is an only daughter Margaret (Mrs. Victor Symes) of Cannington and formerly of R.R. 1, Claremont; two grandchildren, Sheila (Mrs. James Saunders) and Neil Symes (Mrs. James Saunders) and Neil Symes (Mrs. James Saunders); and two great-grandchildren, Michael James and Melinda Elizabeth Saunders.

Artists share skills

STOUFFVILLE — Four years ago, an Art Class was organized at the Silver Jubilee Club with instruction, under the capable guidance of Kay Parker, every Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

Membership is now up to fourteen and the progress is amazing. Some paintings border on the professional.

On Friday, a show and sale was enjoyed at the Club with exhibits receiving high praise. The event was opened by Rae Pipher, president of the parent organization.

Participants included Alma Johnson, Irene Slack, Bessie Pegg, Jessie Buchanan, Mary Bowden, Mary Carey, Joy Byer, Winnifred Mathews, Violet Baldwin, Muriel Rae, Fred McNair, Eleanor Crossen, Flo Pearce, Olive Murphy and Margaret Follett.

Each of the entrants voiced admiration for Mrs. Parker, a Claremont artist of considerable skill.
