

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hills, formerly of Whitevale and Altona but now residing at R. R. 2, Pefferlaw, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with an 'open house' Saturday, in the fellowship hall of Markham Missionary Church. —Jim Thomas

Married fifty years

MARKHAM — Fifty years of marriage deserves a celebration. The family of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hills thought so—they did it twice.

Back in February, they held a surprise gathering at their parents' winter home in St. Petersburg, Florida. Then Saturday, they organized an 'open house' in the fellowship hall of the Markham Missionary Church. Friends and relatives from a wide area attended.

Mr. Hills was born at Whitevale, the son of William and Nancy Hills. He attended Whitevale Public School. Mrs. Hills, the former Margaret Raymer, was born at R. R. 2, Pickering, the daughter of Roy and Catherine Raymer. She attended Mt. Joy Public School.

Following their marriage, Feb. 10, 1932 in the Claremont Baptist Church; they resided at Whitevale, then moved to Altona where they remained 13 years. Now their summer home is Royal Beach, R. R. 2, Pefferlaw. They spend the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Hills

are proud of their family that includes four daughters: Catherine (Mrs. Angus McArthur), Markham; Doris (Mrs. Colin Williams), Altona; Donna (Mrs. Bert Beckett), Markham; Linda of Altona; three sons: Gordon, King City; Ronald of Norwood; Russell at Agincourt; sixteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
