Host vets at Legion

CLAREMONT—On Thursday, May 20, 39 veterans from Sunnybrook Hospital, were luncheon guests of the Legion and Legion ladies' auxiliaries. Dr. Nelson Tomlinson and Howard Hockley, former residents of Claremont, now living at Parkview Home in Stouffville, were among the guests, as was Ralph Frisby, adopted veteran of Claremont Legion. Altogether, there were 70 veterans on hand for this annual event. Following lunch, the group was entertained with music by Claremont Public School Mini Beats, and several games of bingo. Upon leaving, each veteran received a Wintario ticket. Thanks to our caring Legion veterans, Sunnybrook has one group of disabled veterans who are not forgotten.

Roy and Rosemary Timms attended the Centennial celebration of Local 27 of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, May 22, at the Constellation Hotel in Rexdale. About 1,000 celebrants were on hand.

The afternoon unit of Claremont United Church Women, will meet in the home of Mrs. Maude Anderson, May 25 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Clara Carson is in charge of the program. Good luck to approximately 60 Claremont students who will participate in the Dunbar-Pickering track meet on May 27.

Congratulations to Ethel and Cec Redman of Markham, and formerly of Claremont, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Daughter, Yvonne (Pudge), and her husband, Peter White, held open house, May 22, at the Legion, which was followed by a dance. The Legion ladies catered to the large crowd. A highlight of the day was when the Redman's nephew, Keith Norton, Ontario Minister of the Environment, introduced fellow M.P.P. Ross Stevenson, who then presented the Redmans with a plaque commemorating the occasion, on behalf of the province.

Recent euchre winners, were: Blanche Tyndall, Elva Kidd, Rene Anchor, Charlie Simes, Alma Kennedy, Irene Redshaw, Grace McLean, Margaret Gall and Clara Carson. Lucky draw winners: Lya Yake, Verna Smith and Irene Redshaw.

Claremont Men's Slopitch starts Sunday, May 30, at the park. Games are at 5:30, 7 and 8:30 p.m.

Ladies' Fun League Slopitch also starts Sunday, with a practice at 1 p.m. There's still room for anyone 18 and over, interested in signing up. Trade in your apron for a ball glove on Sunday afternoon.

Trip west - family gift

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD—Arthur and Rita Parratt recently returned from an enjoyable holiday trip to Vancouver, a 30th wedding anniversary gift from their family. On the way out, they travelled by train, and on the way home, by plane. While there, they called on Mrs. Parratt's niece, Pamela McGillivray and her cousin, Bill Barber. The travel tickets were a complete surprise. Mrs. Parratt said: They were away three weeks.
