 Glen Major Church Ladies Auxiliary met at the home of Hilda Hopkins. The scripture reading was taken by Clara Jones. Bessie Pickett presented the devotional. Joan Tribbeck told of her trip to Arizona and California. Plans are underway for the annual bazaar, Aug. 14.

Office

STOUFFVILLE — The Canada Employment Centre for Students has opened a branch office in the Whitechurch-Stouffville Library. Directors Brendan MacLean and Lee Snider are here every Thursday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Young people seeking jobs and businesses with jobs available are invited to contact the office in person. This service here will be maintained until mid-July.

W.I. growth

The Women's Institutes of Ontario are hoping to create a better image in the community during their 85th anniversary year. As a result of attending the 34th Officers' Conference at the University of Waterloo, this month, local delegates returned with fresh enthusiasm towards enlarging their memberships and attracting younger women.

Among the 560 officers in attendance were Grace Hoover and Lucille Lewis (Altona, W.I.); Isabel Turner (Goodwood, W.I.); and Isobel Nigh (Bethesda, W.I.).

The conference stressed Public Relations and had as its theme "To Accomplish Great Things We Must Not Only Act, But Dream; Not Only Plan But Believe".

Guest speakers were Ronald McNeil, parliamentary aide to The Hon. Dennis Timbrell; Walter Borosa, Chief of Protocol for Ontario and Bruce Johnstone of CKOC-TV.

The Federated Women's Institute of Ontario was established at Stoney Creek in 1897. It has grown to become a world-wide organization with more than nine million members. The W.I. motto is "For Home and Country".
