

Former trustees important

Dear Jim:
On behalf of the Mt. Joy School Reunion Committee, I wish to pay tribute to those members of past trustee boards who gave so freely of their time in the service of the teachers, the students and S.S. No. 16, Markham.
The committee wishes to extend a special invitation to these gentlemen to attend the reunion this Saturday (June 19). Some names that come to mind are: R.J. McElwain, Fred Mason, Lorne Wideman and Lloyd Coxworth. Not to be forgotten are the late Frank Grove, Scott Brown, Ora Ramer, Tom Hassell and others no longer with us.

Appreciation is extended to Betty Forgie whose enthusiasm kept the rest of us going. It was Betty who finalized arrangements for use of the grounds and who not only ordered souvenir buttons but paid for them out of her own pocket. Thanks also to Edna Reid for preparing sketches for the buttons and our souvenir program and to Gord Forgie and friends for setting up the refreshment booth and taking care of parking. Without the help of people like Gord and Betty Forgie, Edna Reid and John Lunau, this memorable event would never have occurred.
Sincerely,
Barbara J. Pashler,
Sherwood Forest Drive,
Markham.

"Let's hope he's got a good excuse"

If Mrs Jack Chambers was seated in the audience at the High School, Wednesday night, she'll understand. If she wasn't, then hubby had better have a good explanation. The local IGA owner was a prominent participant in the "Fun With Fashion" show, sponsored by the Concerned Citizens' Committee of Whitchurch-Stouffville. His comely escorts are Sharon Barry (left) and Heather Brown.
