Twenty-one year old Lizette Lacoursiere of Goodwood is the new Recreation Programs Co-ordinator for Whitchurch-Stouffville. A graduate of Seneca College, she comes highly qualified for the position. There were thirty applicants.

A leader

STOUFFVILLE — Whitchurch-Stouffville's new recreation programs co-ordinator is no stranger to town. A resident of Goodwood for the last eleven years, Lizette Lacoursiere is aware of what the position requires.

Liz is delighted at obtaining the appointment. In fact, she's "very excited about the challenges that lie ahead". When asked what she envisages her job to be, she reeled off a list of things she hopes to achieve once she gets settled in her new office in the lower auditorium of the Silver Jubilee Club (former post office) Main and Market Streets.

Top priority is closer co-operation and cohesion of ideas between people working on facilities, parks and recreation, more information made available to residents regarding future programs and sporting events, making sure residents know what's going on in town.

An extensive traveller, Liz has been around, touring England, continental Europe and Australia for a year. "It was a wonderful experience," she said.

Graduating from Seneca in May, 1980, with a diploma in Recreation Facilities and Management, Liz has five years' experience working in the Uxbridge parks, pool and arena, plus a year at Seneca's new campus at Yorkdale.

The Town's new co-ordinator is no slouch when it comes to taking part in sports: either in the Uxbridge parks, pool and arena, plus a year at Seneca's new campus at Yorkdale.

Liz has no intention of butting in where she's not wanted. She firmly believes local volunteers in the Town's sporting organizations are doing a great job. "My job is to co-ordinate events, not organize them," she concluded.

ONTARIO'S NEW HUMAN RIGHTS CODE BECAME LAW JUNE 15

Our new Code is based on a very simple but strong idea: Each person living in this province is equally important. And each person's worth and dignity should be recognized in order to create a climate of mutual respect and understanding.

Here are some of the main points of the new Code:

RACIAL, ETHNIC AND RELIGIOUS DISCRIMINATION. Everyone has a right to equal consideration for employment, contracts, accommodation, goods, services and facilities regardless of race, colour, ancestry, ethnic origin, place of origin or creed.

HANDICAP. Every person with a physical or mental handicap has a right to equal treatment under the Code.

EMPLOYMENT. The Code has been expanded to prohibit discrimination against handicapped persons, persons between the ages of 18 and 65, and against persons on the ground of family status.

HARASSMENT. Every person has a right to freedom from harassment because of any of the prohibited grounds in accommodation and employment. And unwelcome sexual advances by persons in a position of authority are prohibited.

The Code elaborates these and many other provisions, and permits exceptions in certain cases. We'd like to send you a copy, and your own guide to the Code so that you can find out all the details. Please write: Ontario Human Rights Commission, Queen's Park, Toronto, Ontario M7A 1A2. Or phone: (416) 750-3575.

And see how the new Code supports another very simple but strong idea: Together We Are Ontario.
