

Breaks leg

Tim Ross' eldest son of George and Joy Ross, Main Street, Stouffville, suffered a broken leg, Thursday, when he fell from his bicycle. He was taken to Uxbridge Cottage Hospital and fitted with a cast. Tim's activities will be curtailed most of the summer.

Silver Anniversary

Twenty-nine family friends and relatives of Davey and Mary Anne White, 7 Tindale Road, Stouffville, enjoyed dinner, June 26, at the Deer Park Inn. The occasion was Davey and Mary Anne's 25th wedding anniversary, celebrated on the same date as their marriage. Among those in attendance were their three daughters, Mary Lou, Christine and Elizabeth.

First Bingo

The Ballantrae and Dist. Lions Club will hold their first Bingo of the summer at Cedar Beach pavilion, Thursday, (to-morrow night), July 8, with an early-bird start at 7:30 p.m. Bingos will continue every Thursday evening at the same location until Sept. 2.

Charge Withdrawn

Several months ago, Randy Steckley, Ninth Line South, Stouffville, was charged with mischief to private property after a window was broken at D & V Pinball, Main Street East. In court action that followed, the charge was withdrawn, The Tribune has learned.

The lovely home and former residence of Ida Lehman, 96 O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville, is reported sold to Dan Harman, R.R. 4, Stouffville.

Honored by Family

George and Eveline Brodie of Bloomington were honored by members of their family-daughters Liz and Karen and son Keith, June 26. They were treated to dinner at the Deer Park Inn on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. They were also presented with a beautiful framed photo of their children, taken in the Studio of George Ross, Stouffville.

"Hair Affair"

The New Image is holding a "Hair Affair", Monday, July 12 with a 25% discount on all hair services. Proceeds will be turned over to The Concerned Citizens' Committee to assist in covering legal fees related to the upcoming landfill site appeal. The contact number is 640-2299.

Purchase Painting

The lovely painting of St. James Presbyterian Church, by Stouffville's Gordon Hatt, the object of many admiring glances in the window of Hudson Florists, has been purchased by Gary and Liz Fraser, Albert Street North. The likeness is amazing, says Gary, even to the date on the cornerstone.

From Holland

Ball Tournament

The Youth Group of Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville, recently hosted a successful ball tournament that attracted teams from as far distant as Elmville and Barrie. Brown's Corners' entry won the championship. Later, 65 young people participated in a worship service and concluded the evening with a dance.

Around Town

Name Change

As of July 1, McNeil Laboratories (Canada) Limited is known as McNeil Pharmaceutical (Canada) Ltd. The change is made to better reflect the nature of our business and is now consistent with the names of other J & J pharmaceutical companies around the world. President L.R. Gagnon told The Tribune. The company sign, near the entrance to the property, has already been altered.

Watch Found

Honesty's the best policy—eight year old Kevin Green of 100 Main Street East, Stouffville, has learned this lesson well. On June 26, he found a gold wrist watch with matching expansion bracelet in the Town Park. He brought it into The Tribune Office where it can be picked up by the rightful owner.

Volleyball Champs

Athletes from Stouffville Dist. Secondary School recently won the Division Two Championship in the Scarborough College (University of Toronto) Summer Volleyball League. The Spartans defeated George S. Henry Collegiate in the finals. At the tournament's conclusion, enshrined medallions were presented to Doug Davidson, Doug Grove, Steve Johns, David Rehill, Mike Rehill, Dan Wideman, Trevor Young and team captain Ross Dube.
