

Flying is a (Hagerman) family affair

Ten year-old Scott Hagerman of Boxgrove, R.R.1. Markham, has difficulty in convincing his school chums that he takes flying lessons. Well fellows, here's the evidence. Following in the footsteps (or is it flight path?) of his father and grandfather, Scott is the third generation of Hagermans to receive lessons from flying instructor Marion Orr, resident instructor at Buttonville airport JIM HOLT

By Elsie Boland GOODWOOD — Marian Wells, an enthusiastic worker in the congregation of Lemonville United Church, will be the guest speaker at the 9:30 a.m. service in Goodwood United Church this Sunday. Please note the time change from the regular hour of ten. Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Neil Norton on the birth of a bouncing baby boy.

Several from this community attended the funeral service for Mary Nettie James, Aug. 4, in the Stouffville Missionary Church. Mrs. James, the former Mary Nettie Whittleton, passed away at Parkview Home, Stouffville, Aug. 1. She was 92. Interment was made at Goodwood Cemetery. Mrs. Harold Hoover is home following two months in hospital. United Church cook books are now on sale. Orders will be accepted by calling 640-2249. The price is $4 with proceeds going to "The Window Fund". Euchre winners last week were Art Parratt, Walter Patten, Carolyn Parish, Doris Devlin, Elva Kydd and Eva Evans. The next euchre is Aug. 18 at 8 p.m. A very successful euchre was hosted by the Senior Citizens' Club with proceeds going to the Uxbridge Hospital Building Fund. Winner of the 50-50 draw was Chester Wienholdt. Other winners included Bernice Wells, Marie Harrison, Art Wagg, Aylmer Hood, Maud Anderson, Louise Hammond, Charlie Symes, Charlie Jackson, Elsie Carter, Daisy Sellers, Ed Cammack, Ross Smith, George Archer, Morley Sellers, Joyce McGuckin, Helen Brown, Mrs. Ed Cammack, Geo. MacLain, Jean Pogue, Marjorie Hedges, Janice Harrison, Frank Jenkinson, Edith Ann MacManiman, Esther Archer, Phyllis Pegg, Marg Burkholder, Eva Smith, Elva Kydd and Alice Stewart.

STOUFFVILLE — Prior to taking up residence in Stouffville, Harold and Florence farmed on the 9th Conc. of Pickering west of Claremont. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in April, 1980. Mrs. Catton enjoyed her association with the Silver Jubilee Club, being one of the original members. She was in charge of the euchres there, a responsibility more recently assumed by her husband. She also loved flowers, their property being a floral beauty spot each summer. The family includes two sons, Bill of Scarborough and Don of Oak Ridges; one daughter, Irene Warner, Toronto; nine grandchildren and one great-grandson. Mrs. Catton has two sisters, Lily Smith of Beaverton and Dorothy Ellis, Port Credit. Rev. Cecil Tiller of Stouffville United Church was in charge of the service, Saturday from the O'Neill Chapel, Stouffville, with interment Stouffville Cemetery.

Lemonville guest for Sunday morning service

By Rosemary Timms CLAREMONT — The Corlis Puppet Players will present a children's show in the Community Hall, Tues., Aug. 17 at 10:30 a.m. This program is being sponsored by the local library. Admission is free. The Durham Regional Health Unit invites children, Grades 1 to 5 to a program of fun, food and games in the Community Park, Thurs., Aug. 19 at 10:30 a.m. Only the first 30 boys and girls can be accommodated. Admission is free. In case of rain, the event will be held in the Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hammond and Mr Tom Hammond are planning a trip to England this fall. Mr and Mrs. Glen Evans and family have returned from a two-week vacation at their cottage near Twelve Mile Lake. At a combined service of the United and Baptist congregations, Sunday, Darlene Gamme rendered a beautiful solo entitled "Jesus Is Coming". She was accompanied at the piano by Karen a daughter of Linda McCance. This Sunday, Ron McMullen and Susan Thomas will provide a saxophone duet in the Baptist Church.

The Baptist Young People raised $400 last week during a 30-hour fast. The proceeds will go to World Vision International. Congratulations to Ron McMullen, accepted into the School of Optometry, Waterloo University. Claremont rinks enjoyed considerable success in the Open Trebles Lawn Bowling Tournament, Saturday. Second high for three wins were Earle Cook, Don Hedges and Bob Hammond. High for three wins was Roy Watts, rink of Newmarket. High for two wins was Eric Rhyn'd's threesome from Highland Creek. The dance, Saturday night, sponsored by the Claremont Lions and Lioness Clubs, resulted in receipts (including donations) of $700 for the Carol Rowe Medical Fund. While proceeds now exceed $12,000, additional money is still needed to cover expenses. Mrs. Rowe was supposed to return home this weekend, but her release from a clinic in West Germany has been delayed. She's being treated there for a serious skin disorder. Marty Uzzell is carrying a heavy cast on one leg following recent surgery in York County Hospital, Newmarket. The dance, Saturday night, sponsored by the Claremont Lions and Lioness Clubs, resulted in receipts (including donations) of $700 for the Carol Rowe Medical Fund.
