

Praises Gallery artist

Dear Sir: As the person who painted the mural in the gymnasium of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School and as a former student of Jack Dale at York University, I feel qualified to comment on Mr Dale's photographic exhibition in the Latcham Gallery at Whitechurch-Stouffville Library entitled "Windows From My Darkroom".

Jack Dale is a wonderful person; a fine teacher (he taught me everything I know about photography), and one of Canada's premier photographers. Believe me, this man is NOT a dimwit or a pornographer. He is an artist.

Yes, there was pornography in the show. However, these images have been borrowed from newspapers (most notably "Sunshine Girls") and television, (featuring that ultimate insult to women, "The Miss Universe Pageant"). Jack's own photographs of female nudes are not titillating in the least; they're hilarious.

After all the fuss, it's easy to see why so many of our most creative people give up on this country and head elsewhere. Ignorance and stupidity are synonymous with Canada, it seems.

Finally, I would like to speak to the several people who wrote in the Gallery's guest book. "This is art?" "Yes, you morons; this IS art. If you're too stupid to recognize art when you see it, then you should seriously consider resigning from the human race. We don't need you." Artistically yours, Stephen Skyvington, Toronto

Saying thanks

Dear Jim: I appreciate the fact you use your Roaming Around Column, on occasions, to give individuals a well-deserved pat-on-the-back.

In my opinion, there's not enough of this sort of thing today. It's amazing what a simple "thankyou" can do. When it's said through the newspaper, it's better still.

Your remarks concerning "Good Neighbor" Stewart Anderson were much appreciated. The voluntary assistance provided by folks like him, should not go unrecognized. Sincerely, Gordon Williams, Ballantrae
