Fair has theme for all

MARKHAM - Markham's 127th Fall Fair, plans to live up to its highly-optimistic slogan, "The Fair for You in '82."

That there'll definitely be something for everyone, as promised by President Bill Walker, can be seen in the Fair's agenda, which lists everything from greyhound "dog, not bus" races, to the Miss Markham Fair pageant.

In between, there'll be such things as the Holstein cattle show, the giant Foodland Ontario exhibit, the midway, a tractor pull, a country and western music show, an amateur talent contest, the heavy horse pull, a giant western horse show, general exhibits, quarter horse racing, a special chariot race; and, of course, another great track special, the ever-popular Hell Drivers.

Back out on the grounds, there will be special theme days for such places as Stouffville, Unionville and East York.

The Fair will start Sept. 29, with the official opening the following evening - provincial agriculture minister, Dennis Timbrell, will continue right through to Oct. 3 at 6 p.m.

Admission is: adults $3; children, 50 cents; Thursday and Friday, and $1; Saturday and Sunday, $2. Senior citizens, $2. Parking is $2.

As in the past, bus service is being arranged. Routes will be announced later.

Help wanted

By Elsie Boland-GOODWOOD
Please note that the United Church Women's meeting will be held at the home of Elva Symes, Sept. 8, at 1 p.m. All ladies are welcome.

The Senior Citizens' pot luck dinner will be held at 12 noon, Sept. 7, at Goodwood Hall.

Kaise Koster was speaker at the United Church, Sunday morning. We wish to thank him, and the pianist for the occasion. We also enjoyed having the Epton Utica congregation, with us, singing the hymns of their choice. Mr. Koster's address on The Prodigal Son, gave us much to think about. Next Sunday's service starts at 9:30 a.m. Sunday school resumes Sept. 12. Anyone wishing to teach, please get in touch with Edith Ann MacManiman, at 640-1781.

The UCW catered to the Machesney-Wagg wedding, Friday night, at Goodwood Hall.

The Couples' Club will be having a pot luck supper and dance in the near future. Watch for the date. New members are welcome. The Institute meeting at Goodwood Hall. The Hall will also be the site for the euchre night, Sept. 1.

A Friday night euchre club has been formed at Musselman's Lake, near the Ratepayers' Hall. Good prizes. Everyone welcome.

Dancey to run?

Ron Dancey, a member of York Regional Council, and publisher of the new Markham Times, may be seeking another title soon.

Dancey's office announced that he will be holding a press conference this Thursday (Sept. 2). At that time, he is expected to announce that he will be opposing long-time Markham mayor, Tony Roman, in November's municipal election.

Mayor Roman, who last election thoroughly crushed another challenger, Regional Councillor Ron Moran, has held the job for 12 years.
