

Says thanks

Dear Mr. Thomas: I would like to say "thank-you" was again to The Tribune for being my sponsor in the Miss Markham Fair Pageant.

The gift of a necklace was a nice surprise and a real keepsake of the occasion. The corsage and sash matched my outfit to a "T".

Thanks for your personal interest and time also.

It was a memorable fun experience and I'm certainly looking forward to Markham Fair, 1982.

Sincerely,
Nancy Darling

Photo contest

STOUFFVILLE - Although the fall season has just begun, Latcham Gallery has already announced the shooting season.

Although in this case, the shooting will be confined to all those photographers - amateur and professional - who think they may have captured the proper moment for posterity, or even the family album, with their lenses.

For them, the Gallery is staging a contest, which will culminate in a juried exhibition of all selected black and white silver-prints, Oct. 10.

Entrants may submit a total of three pictures, framed and ready to hang. Hand-colored and toned prints are acceptable.

The entry fee is $3, and this, along with prints and entry form, must be hand delivered to the Gallery on either October 1, 6-8 p.m., Oct. 2, 12-4 p.m., or Oct. 3, 12-4 p.m.

The Gallery is located in the Stouffville Public Library, 65 Main Street W.

Breakin

BALLANTRAE - Two break-ins during the early-morning hours, Sept. 12, resulted in theft losses and property damage estimated at $4,500.

Thieves entered the Ballantrae Food Market on Hwy. 48 around 4 a.m., by breaking a glass in the front door. They made off with a large quantity of cigarettes. At the County Stop Restaurant nearby, more cigarettes were stolen.

Charged later were Patrick Philip Needham, 28, of no fixed address; Richard Thomas Moscrop, 35, of Toronto and Alexander Wardrop, 32, of Oak Ridges. The three were arrested by York Regional Police at Smokey's Deli, Aurora.
