

Winners at Fair

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD
 Three Goodwood area residents were red-ribbon winners in the Craft Section at Marham Fair. Judy Diamond-Sullivan and Nancy Miller placed first in two classes. Bert Tindall headed one class. Nancy also scored two seconds and a third. In the class for a clay article, slab or coil, Joan Fedorchuk won a second. Congratulations also to Ivan Norton, Murray and Marion for their success in the crop and vegetable classes. Ivan won four trophies. Murray had four firsts and Marion had three firsts. In the Fair's pet show, Maria Wassenaar won a third prize for her caterpillar in the Most Unusual Pet Class. Her brother Florian also had a third for his rabbit in Best Farm Pet. Sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Clifford Lee. Service was held from the O'Neill Funeral Home with interment Goodwood Cemetery. The Turkey Shoot held at the Boland farm, Saturday, was very successful. Twenty Thanksgiving dinners were won by top marksmen. Another "shoot" is planned in two weeks. Euchre winners last week included Margaret Stewart, Peggy Hood, Erla Brammer, Harry Brammer, Lloyd Fawns and Rick Hockley. A big bazaar will be held on Saturday, Oct. 23 in the Goodwood United Church. Goodwood Brownies have been fortunate in securing another leader. Mrs. Farquharson has agreed to assume this work making way for additional registrations. Girls six years and over are welcome. The contact people are Barbara St. John (640-5493) and Shelagh Landsman (473-2869).

Beloved pastor

By Jennie Johnson
GLEN MAJOR
 Word has been received on the passing of Rev. Dr. A.F. Binnington, Sept. 22 at Mount Albert. Dr. Binnington was the first student minister at Glen Major and Pine Grove Churches. On July 23, he was the guest pastor at the Glen Major Church centennial. He will be remembered by a number in this community. Pine Grove Church was the scene of a lovely wedding, Sept. 25 when Robin Elizabeth Byron of R.R. 1, Ashburn and Paul Michael Milojevic exchanged vows. Rev. McKay of Epsom officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Simmonds were dinner guests one evening last week with Dr. and Mrs. Ross Parrott. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Home of Dunnville and Isobel Dixon of Dagmar, were recent visitors with Forest Pugh and Myrtle Todrow. Hilda Jones visited last week with Hilda Hopkins of Ashburn. Mrs. Susanne Delores of Oshawa visited with her sister Helen Johnson. Several from this community, called on Alfred and Muriel Fisher of Ashburn, Sept. 26. The occasion was an "open house" in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. James Malloy of Toronto were dinner guests with Herbert Simmonds. Glen Major Ladies Auxiliary met Sept. 23 at the home of Lila Faulkner. Nine members attended.
