

The Tribune

Wednesday, OCTOBER 6, 1982

Second
Section

What a Fair!

It was a record-breaking year at the 1982 Markham Fair including exhibitors in the heavy horse show—exceeding the C.N.E. Merrill Johnson of R.R. 2, Markham pins a ribbon on this Belgian entry shown by Stephen Grove, R.R. 2, Stouffville. —Jim Thomas.

Hon. Dennis Timbrell, Ontario's Minister of Agriculture, (fourth from left), cuts the ribbon to officially open the 1982 Markham Fair, Thursday night. Other participants in the ceremony are (left to right) Aileen (Mrs Barry) Little; Fair Queen Debbie Fish; Markham Mayor Tony Roman; M.P.P. Don Cousens; M.P. John Gamble; Fair President Bill Walker and Janie (Mrs Bryan) Armstrong. —Jim Thomas.

Seven-year-old Jennifer Rydzik (left) of Gormley, had the Best In Show exhibit (open class)—an apple doll. She received a special ribbon and an engraved trophy that's admired by twin-sister Melanie. —Jim Thomas.

Eleven-year-old Susan Carter of Ballantrae won the Travelways Trophy for Top Student exhibitor at Markham Fair and this special ribbon for Best In Show.

Grades 5 to 8. The presentation is made by Board 1st vice-president Barry Little. —Jim Thomas.

Gord Lewis and family, R.R. 1, Unionville, were the Grand Champion Exhibitors in the heavy horse class at Markham Fair. Mr Lewis was presented with an engraved silver tray, courtesy G.M. Smith Co. Ltd., Unionville. —Jim Thomas.

Marion Norton, R.R. 1, Goodwood, placed three entries in the Crop and Vegetable Classes at the Fair and won three first prizes including a red ribbon for this beautifully "packaged" sheaf of barley. —Jim Thomas.

Fifteen-year-old Ann Carter of Ballantrae, a Grade 10 student at Stouffville High, won the coveted K.J. Beamish Trophy for top exhibitor in the Eighteen and Under Class. The presentation was made Sunday by Jennie Mann (left) and Aloma Provis. —Jim Thomas.

This first prize scarecrow, entered by Redwheel Public School, has every reason to stare out the corners of his eyes. His companion is Nancy Darling of Stouffville, 1st runner-up in the Queen of Markham Fair pageant. —Jim Thomas.

This giant 'spud,' tipping the scales at three pounds, 14 1/2 ounces, was an easy winner in The Tribune's Big Potato Contest at Markham Fair. Its exhibitor was Michael Smalley, R.R. 3, Mt. Albert. —Jim Thomas.

Winning red ribbons at heavy horse shows is common for Steven Lewis of R.R. 1, Unionville. He was the recipient of several at Markham Fair, Friday. The presentation here is made by Allan Murray of Stouffville. —Jim Thomas.

Fourteen-month-old Megan Scott, daughter of Greg and Susan Scott, 50 Longwater Chase, Unionville, was the Reserve Grand Champion at Markham Fair's Baby Contest, Saturday. She was presented with her ribbon by Debbie Fish, 1982 Queen of Markham Fair. —Jim Thomas.