

Nothing sacred?

STOUFFVILLE - Is nothing sacred?
Last week, a 26-year-old Stouffville area man was arrested by York Regional Police and charged with stealing two portable toilets.

The units were removed from a construction site at Kennedy Road and 16th Avenue, Unionville, Aug. 27, and later found in the accused's possession. Their value has been placed at over $200.

Juvenile charged
A 14-year-old juvenile was charged with dangerous driving following an accident on Felcher Boulevard, Ballantrae, Sept. 25. Damage to the vehicle was placed at $8,000 after it veered into the ditch and struck a culvert. Two passengers, also juveniles, were taken by cruiser to York County Hospital, Newmarket, where they were treated for minor injuries and released.

Girl Accosted
Police are looking for the driver of a car who attempted to run down an 18-year-old girl on Ramona Boulevard, Markham, after she refused his offer for a ride.

The teenager said the motorist followed her, then veered across the road and nearly hit her. The incident occurred around 11:50 p.m. Thursday.

Sales increase

At a Rally attended by over 400 representatives, President, Thomas N. Shea of Family Trust Corporation, launched the 1983 Sales Incentive Program featuring a trip to Bermuda, as the Company's Incentive Program featuring a trip to Bermuda, as the Company's expression of confidence in the real estate market.

"We believe real estate sales are showing good signs of recovery," Shea said. "Many of our agents, especially in the York Region, have now equalled last year's production because they refuse to participate in negative thinking. The real problem is one of confidence and we believe the time is right for us to show the power of positive thinking in reviewing the market. There are probably more good affordable homes on the market now than in the past decade and with declining interest rates, these bargains will not be available," said Robert A. Shea, Senior Vice President and General Manager. Family Trust representatives who meet the qualifying requirements will be travelling to Bermuda in the Spring of 1983, for a seven day vacation in a luxurious ocean front resort hotel.

Family Trust Corporation, which specializes in urban residential and rural real estate, operates 30 offices and employs more than 600 sales representatives throughout Southern Ontario.

Top speakers

WHITCHURCH — Darren Gornall (Grade 7) and Michael Groves (Grade 4), will represent Whitchurch-Highlands School in the Area's elementary public speaking competitions, Oct. 28.

Intermediate contestants will speak at Summitview School in Stouffville; the junior entries at Orchard Park School, Stouffville.

Darren's topic was "Piano Lessons". Michael spoke on "Sharks".

Intermediate runners-up were Mark Goldring, Grade 7 "My Trip To Newfoundland", and Katie Summerfeldt, Grade 8 "My Appendix Operation".

The junior runner-up was Holly McNamara, Grade 6. Holly spoke on her "Tenting Trip".
