York County cross country finals

Midgets place second

Stouffville Spartan midget girls cross-country team ran their hearts out last Thursday to take second place in the York County championships at Vivian Forest. SDSS has every reason to be proud of the midget team's effort. Compared to the big guns in York County, Markham, Thornlea etc.

SDSS has a very limited number of runners to place on the starting line. All ten runners did well against tough competition. Kelly Cowan was first over for SDSS in fourth spot, followed by Kathy Goldman in 8th, Elizabeth Sled in 12th and Julie Harris completing the 3,000 metres in 12th; it was these placings that clinched second spot. Other Spartan runners were Heather Cameron with a very credible 15th in such a big field.

The fourth place finish by the junior boys can certainly be improved upon, according to coach Dave Connell, when the team enters the G.B.S.S.A. meet today; October 27, at Horseshoe Valley. David White came in at 15th, Terry Stewart (20th), Bill Hutchinson (21st) and Bill De-necker (28th). Also in the pack were: Ross Mays (33rd); John Klein (44th); Nick Zielonko (45th).

Thirteen-year-old Chris Snooks was the only Spartan entry in the midget boys event and finished a respectable 21st. With extra practice he could well head the midget runners next year. He certainly shows a lot of potential.

Steve King was also a "lonely runner" in the senior event; running to a tough 24th place as the lone Spartan entry. Assistant Coach and Manager, Sean Torrington, did an excellent job in helping organize the teams and making sure everyone was at the line on time.

Skate awards

Congratulations to two senior skaters of the Stouffville Figure Skating Club for their success in the fall school results, held in Unionville on Oct. 5. Christine Caterer (European Waltz) and Maureen Ferguson (Rocker 4th figure) were the successful participants.

The senior girls team ran to third spot with Diane Vague first over for the Spartans in tenth place, followed by Mary Griffiths (13th); Donna Yeoman (15th) and Karen Smith (20th).

Twin performance

Despite a lack of league action last week, the Pee-wee Clippers did well in winning both their exhibition games.

On Wednesday night they hosted the Villagers, a MTHL team, trouncing them 7-1. Lee Armet's potential shutout going out the window with the Villagers solitary goal in the middle of the third period.

Clipper goals came from: Kent Smythe, Francis, Baston, Henneze, Ferguson, Blacktop and Kirk Smythe, with assists to: Larmer (2), Mucci, Kirk Smyth, Stronach, Kent Smythe and Trentadue (2).

Friday night saw the arrival of a big, fast-skating, hard-hitting (non-contact ?) team from Sharon. The Clippers were ready, willing and able to walk away with an 8-5 win.

The firing squad were: Kent Smyth, Francis, Ferguson (2), Stronach, Henneze, Kirk Smythe and Larmer, with assists to: Kirk Smythe (3), Kent Smythe, Francis, Ferguson, Stronach, Mucci, Henneze, Trentadue

Scrappy win fails to impress fans

Despite their 3-1 win over Port Perry on Friday evening, the Midget Clippers did nothing to endear themselves to Coach Bill Hutchison or the faithful fans who turned up to watch their season opener at the Arena.

A scrappy and indifferent performance by last year's All-Ontario champs was not enhanced by their eagerness to mix it with a disgruntled opposition in the third period.

Fortunately, all was not bad. The crowd were delighted with the performance of Wayne Stevens in the Midget net. He kept them in the game and showed a fearless talent. Along with goalie Joe Risk they may yet prove to be the cornerstone of this year's team; certainly there was no evidence of last year's superstars in Friday's game.

Trounce Pickering

This year's atom rep team is off to a fine start with three out of a possible six points; one win, a tie and one loss.

A loss in their first game, against Port Perry, saw the atoms go down 7-1. Danny McNeil's goal from Jamie Campbell and Lee Scaife saving them from a shutout.

Robbie Mountjoy, Jeremy Hall, Lee Scaife and Danny McNeil; McNeil matched his second to round out the scoring, with Jamie Campbell collecting four assists.
