Remembrance Day means more to today's youth

By Karen Marks
CLAREMONT - I wrote a letter to the editor of The Toronto Sun, last week, in response to his editorial referring to the "holiday" school kids get on Remembrance Day. Just wanted him to know that our children in Durham are being taught to remember the sacrifices their ancestors have made on their behalf. Claremont Public School children held a special service, at which Mr. Jack Rennie spoke about his experiences during the war. Courtenay Graham, Jennifer Greer and Pam Barber gave presentations about the poppy. Behind the speakers, hung a poppy wreath made by the Beavers. Two film strips, about the poppy and Remembrance Day services in Ottawa, and the singing of "Oh, God Our Help in Ages Past," and "Oh, Canada," helped to project the solemnity of the occasion.

Claremont Public School did well at selling poppies again this year, to help raise funds for school activities. Prizes were awarded to the top sales people, who were as follows: 1st Jason Redshaw, a radio; 2nd Howard Mann, a walkie-talkie; Tambray Vandergulick, a stuffed monkey; Tracey McFarlane and Jason Budd won calculators. All classroom winners received a Claremont bag. They were: Leanne Lehman, Paul Heydon, Sandy Hammond, Brandi Key, Matthew Davis, Sarah Mulveney, Michael Death, Sharon Uzzell, Edward Mackie, Pat O'Day, AID, Katie Geregthy.

The next Parent Advisory meeting will be held Nov. 24 in the library of Claremont Public School, at 7 p.m. All community members are welcome. The Lions Club will be holding its Christmas Bazaar, Nov. 20 in the Community Hall, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. There will be baked goods, crafts, white elephants and a tea table.

Everyone is invited to the Mission Circle meeting, Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Sunday school room of the Baptist Church. There will be a display of hobbies, crafts and a drama about women in the Bible. Roll call is to name your hobby.
Roy and Rosemary Timms attended the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Harry and Ruby Rendell, Brampton, on Nov. 13.
A baby shower was held for Sandy Hill, and son, Joseph Wilmont, at the home of Linda Caruthers, Stouffville, Nov. 14.
Recent euchre winners: Doris Wilson, Evelyn Bryant, Maude Anderson, Rita Parrott, Tom Hammond and Evans Benson. Lucky draw winners:

Ron Harrison; Mary Borland and Eva Evans. Series winners were Maude Anderson, Eva Evans and Tom Hammond.

Ad support

STOUFFVILLE - Publishing a Year Book has become a tradition at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, a tradition the staff and students want to maintain.
However, escalating costs, are taxing their resources. Even at a purchase price of $10 the school is losing $8.00 on each copy.
At the present time Year Book advertisers contribute around $2,000. Principal Michael Muir feels additional firms may want to be included but have not been approached.
A full page is $120, a half-page, $80, a quarter-page, $45 and an eighth of a page, $30.
"If we don't call you, you call us," is the message. Principal Muir wants to put across. The number is 640-1433.

My thanks

Dear Jim:
An election campaign is an enlightening and rewarding experience. I was delighted with the response I received from the constituents of Ward 4. I am looking forward to working with Council in the future.
Stouffville has a great many wonderful people who love our small town atmosphere and the quality of life we now enjoy. A few minor problems were brought to my attention, which I hope can be resolved in the near future.
I truly appreciated the efforts of my family, my campaign managers - the Whytall family - Bill and Grace Burd who did my printing, my sign crew, my scrutineers and my loyal friends and supporters.
December 7th, at 7:15 p.m. is the inaugural meeting at the Council chambers.
I trust I will have the support of the Tribune in the future as I have had in the past.
Sincerely,
Fran Sainsbury
