

Rental moves

STOUFFVILLE—Stouffville Rental may soon be a place to buy as well as rent. "I want to start selling, too," owner Ray Pattimore told The Tribune. "Items like industrial tools, chain saws and welding equipment." Pattimore has moved his business from Ringwood to the former Ford dealership site at Main Street West and Ninth Line South. He now has the proper showcase for his wares, along with considerable parking space. Lack of room was always a problem at Ringwood, he says, and the main reason for moving. Pattimore, in the business six years, has three employees. He rents tools and supplies to home-owners and construction companies.

Win a trip

BALLANTRAE—Dream Trip draws, sponsored by the Ballantrae and District Lions Club, are on again for the next twelve months, beginning January '83. The first selection is Jan. 27. Some lucky couple will win a seven-day vacation in Jamaica. Only 200 tickets are sold. The cost is ten dollars per month (post-dated cheques) or one hundred dollars (pay in advance). The committee chairman is Dr. John Bare (640-6954). The Dream Trip Draw has become very popular. Dr. Bare said, so popular, many of the tickets have already been reserved in advance. The majority of trip-winners have been Whitechurch-Stouffville residents. Other travel destinations include Bermuda, The Barbados, Florida and Hawaii.

Open store

STOUFFVILLE—Heartland Fashions, 58 Main Street West, Stouffville's newest fashion shop, made its debut Nov. 17. The budget-priced store carries a line of both men's, women's, and children's clothing in sports and work wear. "We specialize in jeans," says owner Rose Losinski. Operator of a similar store in Uxbridge for the past year and a half, she says she's "very pleased" with the progress there and is anticipating the same reception here.

Aided driver

Dear Sir: On the afternoon of Nov. 12, my car ran out of gas. A gentleman stopped to offer assistance. He took my gas can, had it filled, then returned, put the gas in my car and stayed to make sure it would start. All he asked in return was reimbursement for the gas. When I asked his name, so that I might thank him properly, all he told me was that he was known as "Lucky." I feel such an act of kindness should not go unnoticed. Therefore, through your newspaper, I wish to say to "Lucky," whoever you are, a sincere thank-you and hope I may someday be able to return the kindness you showed me. Sincerely, (Mrs.) Sandy Fifield, Markham.
