

She bids for sales

STOUFFVILLE — Another "first" for Whitechurch-Stouffville—a lady auctioneer.

Terri Surman, Manitoba Street, Stouffville, graduated Nov. 20 from the Mason City College of Auctioneering following an intensive seven-day course. There were 26 men and four women enrolled.

"I've always been fascinated by auctions," said Terri, an energetic mother of two. This interest, she says, has increased since coming to town ten years ago.

Mrs Surman gives full credit to husband Don and their two daughters for offering encouragement; also to auctioneer Norm Faulkner for advice.

For starters, Terri plans to concentrate on sales of household furnishings and antiques. She'll also assist at charity auctions, should any be planned in the area. "Right now, I need the exposure," she admits.

Female auctioneers, while less common in the business than men, are active in various parts of Ontario and, on occasions, have performed at the Stouffville Sales Barn and the Wilson Sales Arena, Uxbridge.

Present play

That legendary hero of 17th-century romantic fiction, Don Quixote, will be tilting at windmills, and whatever else is in his way, at Newmarket's Sacred Heart Catholic High School, Dec. 1 to 4.

That's when the school players present their fourth annual production, the famed musical, Man of La Mancha, based on the novel Don Quixote by Miguel Cervantes.

Featuring such well-known melodies as "The Impossible Dream," and, of course, "Man of La Mancha," the show tells the story in song of the aging and luckless Cervantes. Thrown into prison by the Spanish Inquisition for alleged offences against the church, Cervantes tells the story of Quixote to the self-declared tribunal of fellow prisoners, as a defence against the charges.

The school production features a huge cast of 42, plus nine dancers, nine musicians and some 13 crew members.

Tickets are $4, adults; $3, students, children and senior citizens. On closing night, there will be a dinner show, with tickets $15, all around.

A sad loss

By Jennie Johnson
GLEN MAJOR — Sympathy of the community is extended to Dorothy Jones, daughter Sharon and family and son Keith and family in the passing of a loving husband and father, Mr Percy Jones of Brooklin, Nov. 13.

Clara Jones accompanied Shirley Baster and Marion Harper to the second annual gathering of "Friends Of The Glen", held at Cedar Glen.

Mrs Clarena Thompson of Scugog Island visited with Jennie Johnson last week.

Lucy Martin has returned after spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs Dorothy Darter of Oakville.

Dr. and Mrs Ross Parrott were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs John Simpson of Uxbridge following the Sunday morning service, (Nov. 14), at the Free Methodist Church where Jean and Dorothy sang a duet and Jean a solo.

The Ladies Auxiliary will hold their Christmas meeting, Nov. 25 (to-morrow) at the home of Isobel Dixon. A pot-luck luncheon is planned for 1 p.m. with Bessie Pickett's group in charge. White gifts will be received and passed on to the Salvation Army.
