THANKS TO OUR COMMUNITY

Stouffville Christian School Board of Directors wishes to thank the many people within our community for sharing their time and specialized skills throughout the summer and fall in helping in the construction of the facilities.

Now that the remodelling of the facilities is nearly completed, the School invites you to make a visit to see the fine job you have done on Sunday, December 5th, 2-4 p.m. or by arrangement.

Thank you, again, in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Sincerely yours,
Stouffville Christian School

Bob Forhan advocates - Gov't. landfill

STOUFFVILLE — "If there's going to be a monopoly in something, it should be in solid waste management, and it should be a government one, not a private one," York Regional Chairman, Bob Forhan, told the annual meeting of the Stouffville District Credit Union, Monday night at the Legion Hall.

The chairman's remarks were in reply to a question from the floor as to the Region's "position," where the Stouffville landfill site on Highway 48, is concerned. Forhan said the Region didn't "have a position. It's not a regional issue. We're trying to get the province involved, to regulate and own them." If the remaining landfill sites weren't bought up in the next 15 years, "we're in big trouble," he said.

Whitchurch-Stouffville couldn't afford to go in and run a site, Forhan said. Right now, a committee was being set up in the provincial house to study solid waste management.

"The concern is not just Whitchurch-Stouffville, but all of Ontario," the speaker said.

Forhan outlined some of the aspects of regional government to the meeting, saying it had provided round-the-clock police protection, a system of equal education opportunities for the children, engineering, social and planning services, as well as various administrative services. This meant that Whitchurch-Stouffville "gets the services it needs, not just what it can afford."

First loss

Family Trust atom Selects were defeated for the first time on Nov. 26, when they were edged 6-5 by Aurora, who took a 1-0 lead in the first with Stouffville failing to reply.

Trailing 2-1 at the end of the second the Stouffville squad put in a tremendous performance in the final frame; notching no less than 4 goals. Unfortunately, Aurora matched them goal for goal and they were unable to get the edge needed for a tie.

Goals went to Brent Gould and Gai Biadi, each with a pair, and

Top salesladies win trip

Recently, local Avon representatives Edna Lee (left) and Irene Reid, both of Ringwood, enjoyed a three-day trip to Montreal. They were two of 522 top Sales Achievers from across Canada. They attended gala dinners, went on special tours, received lovely gifts and were hosted by William E. Griffin, Jr. President of Avon Canada at a lavish banquet, with Jack Jones, the guest entertainer. Avon products are sold by more than a million representatives in 32 countries.

Unionville students Live in past

PIONEER VILLAGE — An enterprising teacher from Unionville Public School, Mr. G. B. Sillito, and his enthusiastic students will re-create a 19th century school environment in the Dickson's Hill Public School at Black Creek Pioneer Village, Saturdays and Sundays, Dec. 4 to 19 inclusive.

Between 1 and 4 p.m., the students, dressed in pioneer costumes, will participate in spelling bees, recitation, creative writing, reading and arithmetic. They will decorate the inside of the school using such 19th century style Christmas decorations as pine and cedar boughs, corn cobs and husks, knitting wool, cranberries and strung popcorn. Also a small Christmas tree will be dressed with homemade gingerbread cookies, toffee and candied orange peel tied up in scraps of fabric.

Outside the Dickson's Hill School, several students will sing Christmas carols to entertain visitors to the Village. Other students will work in co-operation with Black Creek staff in the various buildings throughout the Village, gaining first hand experience about pioneer life.

The activities of the students from Unionville Public School add another dimension to Black Creek's "Christmas in the Village" program. Families can also see fancy breads, mincecath and gifts in the authentic pioneer homes, as well as a display of Victorian toys in the "Däiziel Barn." Children will enjoy a visit with Santa Claus in the Barn and will be eager to sign his Christmas book.

Champions

St. Mark's intermediate girls' volleyball team went to Keswick on Nov. 23, taking part in the York County Roman Catholic Board's tournament and coming away with the "D" division title after a prolonged battle with St. Joseph's, Richmond Hill.

The team also participated this past Saturday in an all-county tournament at St. Robert's high school, against the winners of the "A," "B" and "C" divisions; making it to the finals before going down in a very close match with St. Margaret Mary's of Woodbridge, finishing second overall.

Team members are Patricia Benders, Julie Burch, Shannon Cooney, Brigitte Edwards, Dorothy Ireton, Sonya Klein, Carmen Lopez, Monique Gilbert, Jennifer Grabiec, Dina Middleton, Cindy Savoia and Rose Tesoro. The team is coached by staff teacher Mr. P. Gowdy.

Quit appeal case

STOUFFVILLE

The Concerned Citizens of Whitchurch-Stouffville, who have been actively fighting for the closing of the York Sanitation site on Highway 48, for more than a year, have withdrawn from the appeal proceedings in the present Ontario Environmental Board hearing at Markham's Centennial Centre.

Tuesday morning, Rod Timberg, solicitor for the group, told hearing chairman, Lois De Groot, that, while the Concerned Citizens still opposed any extension of the dump's operation, it felt the battle was between the company and the Ministry of the Environment, and was withdrawing as a result.

In a prepared statement, the group said that "given the financial resources that we have, we now believe the appeal is not within the framework through which we can be most effective in this fight."

It said it was counting on the June 30, 1983 closing date that had been set, and intended to hold the provincial government to its decision in the matter. "The people of this small community are counting on that date. Most of them still believe it's going to happen and we will fight to the end with everything at our disposal," the statement said.

"When asked later by The Tribune how they intended to fight, should it be necessary, group spokesman, Fran Sutton, said: "We're very creative."

The hearing continued into the afternoon, after board chairman, De Groot, turned down a request from Carol Olchowski, of the Ministry of the Environment, for a further adjournment of a month.

Olchowski argued that negotiations were still going on among the principals involved, and she believed a settlement "is still a reassuring possibility."

Murray Chusid, solicitor for Waste Management Inc., operators of the dump site, opposed the adjournment, because not all parties were in agreement on a proposed settlement.

Cards of Thanks 660

I wish to thank my family that I am so proud of and my many friends for the love and support they have given me during my 70th year. I love you all. Flossie Wagg.

TO all who planned and had any part in the special appreciation night for me, please accept my sincere thanks. Thanks also for the lovely gifts and a very special evening that will long be remembered. With sincere appreciation, Jim Barker, Victoria Square.

THE family of the late James Eagan would like to thank friends, relatives, neighbours for flowers, cards, expressions of sympathy and many acts of kindness shown during their bereavement. Also special thanks to Ellen Inley who is a very good friend.

THE numerous expressions of kindness and love shown to me by family, friends, my fellow sisters of the Claremont U.C.W., the members of the Claremont Lionesses, contribute greatly to my convalescence and have enriched my life. I wish you all the peace and joy of this holiday season. Rhoda Almack.

WE wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to all our friends who have been so helpful since the fire. The support we have received through practical assistance, gifts of food, and words of encouragement has been deeply appreciated. Amos and Ada Rescor, George, Anna K. and Family.

WE would like to express our appreciation to our neighbours, friends and relatives for their many acts of kindness during the illness and passing of a dear husband and father. Annie Byer, Faye & Marion.
