

Honored at Parkview party

STOUFFVILLE — Six residents of Parkview Home were honored, Nov. 24, at a birthday party hosted by the Excelsior Class of Ringwood Christian Church.

Recognized were: Louise McCowan, 95, Nov. 24; Sarah Lunau, 95, Nov. 11; Edwin Byer, 88, Nov. 23; Mable Card, 86, Nov. 19; Zelia Patenaude, 86, Nov. 17; and Pearl Wideman, 85, Nov. 8.

Participants in the program were: Florence Yakeley, Fern Keith, Margaret Jemmett, Ada Steckley, Rae Pipher, Frances Vague and Annie Fockler.

The next birthday gathering at Parkview is Wed., Dec. 8. The host organization is from the Markham Missionary Church. Among those to be honored on that occasion is Gertrude Ross, 99, Dec. 23.

A birthday party was enjoyed at Parkview Home, Stouffville, Nov. 24. Ninety-five years old last Wednesday was Mrs. Louise McCowan. She was presented with a corsage by Margaret Jemmett of the Ringwood Christian Church Excelsior Class.

On Nov. 11, Sarah Lunau of Parkview Home, also celebrated her 95th birthday. She received a corsage from Frances Vague. Four other residents were similarly honored. Their ages ranged from 85 to 88. The next birthday gathering is Dec. 8. —Jim Thomas.

Late George Byer School caretaker loved by children

STOUFFVILLE — A public school caretaker, with love for children, will cultivate friendships that are never forgotten.

Such a man was George Byer.

Mr. Byer was the first custodian at Orchard Park School in Stouffville and remained there from 1958 to 1966. Later, he was employed at Parkview School, Unionville. During this time, he worked under three principals, each of whom he had the highest regard — Keith Sutherland, Alfred Hill and Bob Stover. But more important than the duties he so diligently performed, were the friendships he made with the children. Never a day, during his retirement years, would he walk down to the Post Office without meeting a pupil "friend" from the past.

George Byer passed away Nov. 23 in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital. He'd been in declining health almost a year.

Born at Atha, the son of Joseph and Ella Byer, he was the fourth generation to occupy the property. He attended Atha Public School and Clarendon Continuation School.

In 1954, he sold the farm and had a new home built on Orchard Park Boulevard in Stouffville. Until 1958, he worked at Stiver's Feeds, leaving them to take over the caretaker's job at Orchard Park School.

George Byer was a member in the congregation of Stouffville Missionary Church. He was a church steward many years and served as secretary of the Sunday School.

Rev. Jim Clubine assisted by Rev. Douglas Gray, conducted the funeral service Friday, with interment at Stouffville Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Robert Stover, Robt. McDowell, Ernie Caruthers, Harry Schell, Robt. Sanderson and Carl Reesor.

Besides his wife, the former Annie James, Mr. Byer is survived by two daughters, Faye of Sunderland and Marion of Epsom and four grandchildren. One brother, Fred, lives on Maytree Avenue in Stouffville.

On Thurs., Dec. 9, the Whitechurch-Stouffville Concert Band will entertain with Jim Rehill, the guest soloist. On Tues., Dec. 14, The High School Band under the direction of Peter Samuelson, will host a musical program.

Wintario Half-Back. You can assist the Public Library in the purchase of books through the Wintario Half-Back program. Tickets from Wintario draws made Oct. 28 onwards, can be deposited at the Library's front desk. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Latham Gallery Party. Latham Gallery in the Town Library, is holding a "Premiere Party" this Friday (Dec. 3) beginning at 8:30 p.m. The event will include a fashion show of fur and lounge wear as well as jewelry. Refreshments will be served. For tickets ($15 a couple) call 640-2395.

100th Birthdays. There'll be good reason for a celebration at Parkview Home in February. Two residents will mark 100th birthdays. Frank Whittamore will be 100 years old Feb. 3 and Annie Walker will celebrate a similar milestone, Feb. 4. On Dec. 23, Gertrude Ross will 99. Congratulations.

At Parkview. Mrs. Wm. Morris, Park Drive North, Stouffville, is presently in Parkview Home.

Service

The annual C.G.I.T. Vesper Service will be held this Sunday (Dec. 5) at 7:30 p.m., in Lemonville United Church.

Beautiful Clocks. The beautiful grandfather's clock in the Christmas display window of Hudson's Flowers, Main Street, Stouffville, was constructed by Martin Poulos, Centre Street, Mount Albert. It's been the subject of many admiring glances. It's also for sale.

In Hospital. Ruth-Anne White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Main Street East, is a patient in Toronto Western Hospital.

Successful Bazaar. The Christ Anglican Church bazaar, Saturday, was very successful with proceeds close to $3,300. The handmade quilt was won by Mr. E. Nicholls of 86 Stuart Street, Stouffville and the Annie doll was won by Darlene Campbell, 96 Glengall Lane. The bazaar convenors were Shirley Sled and Bev. Whitaker.

Dinner Cancelled. The roast beef dinner, planned by the Grade 8 students of Orchard Park School for Thursday evening (Dec. 2), has been postponed due to insufficient ticket sales. A minimum of 100 tickets had to be sold in advance for the event to be a success.

Bake sale

The parents of the 1st Stouffville Cubs and Scouts are holding a bake sale on Fri., Dec. 3 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in front of the IGA on Main Street. Your support of this event will be appreciated.

Photo Exhibit. Marilyn Westlake (the former Mrs. Michael Kuczen), lived for eight years in the old Bloomington Schoolhouse, Ninth Line North. Now a photographer of considerable ability, she will have some of her work on display at Studio Gallery Nine, beginning Fri., Dec. 9 (at 8 p.m.) and continuing through Dec. 31. The location is 9 Davies Avenue (4th Floor), Toronto. For additional information call 469-0031.

A Victorian party

VANDORF — The Whitechurch-Stouffville Museum will host its annual Victorian Christmas Tea Party, Wed., Dec. 8 from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The museum's location is in the hamlet of Vandorf, west side of Woodbine Avenue.

Christmas pudding will be served along with trifle, tea, coffee and other goodies. There will also be a sale of home-baking along with crafts and Christmas decorations.

The museum will be open, enabling visitors to examine the unique display on the Barn Raising Theme. Admission is $2.50 with tickets available in advance at the museum or at the door. For additional information call 727-8954.

ties. All were impressed with the amount of heart disease research currently underway.

The Stouffville Chapter is presently planning its campaign for February 1983. Anyone willing to participate is asked to contact either Lovanna (640-2014) or Gail (640-2338). Films and speakers are also available for club meetings.

Heart in their work

STOUFFVILLE — Lovanna Sanders and Gail Richards recently attended a volunteer workshop, sponsored by the Ontario Heart Foundation. It was entitled "Building Chapters Together". The workshop provided an opportunity for volunteers to meet and share ideas to assist them in developing a better presence in their own communities. The Stouffville Chapter is presently planning its campaign for

Promotes student exchange

STOUFFVILLE — Karen Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Harris, Main Street, Stouffville, a Grade 12 student at S.D.S.S., was the guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Stouffville Lions Club at the Deer Park Inn.

Karen, the Lions representative in the student exchange program, described the values to be gained from such an experience.

She was introduced by Lion Mike Grinnell and thanked by District Governor Lion

Carl Young of Clarendon.

Lion Ron Lee has been chairman of the Lions' Student Exchange Program for the past four terms.
